GERRY T. SMITH
Grand Master, 1997-1998

GERRY T. SMITH

Gerry T. Smith was born June 15, 1944, the son of Theodore B. and Evelyn D. Smith. He has a brother, Phillip B. Smith and a sister, Raelene S. Rosselli.

Smith was educated at Smyrna High School and Wilmington College.

He married Rebecca Lawrence. They are parents of Gerry, Jr. (Ted) and the late Todd Smith. They have a granddaughter, Madison.

The family lives in Morehead City and are members of First Baptist Church in Beaufort. Gerry and Ted are watermen who operate T. B. Smith Seafood Co. and Ted & Todd Marine Service on Radio Island, Morehead City. They fish, wholesale seafood, and repair and build trawlers.

Gerry helped Past Grand Master Les Garner found the Kiwanis Club in Beaufort. Garner later presented him the much respected Carolinas Award from Kiwanis.

Smith is active in local politics and community affairs. Currently serving his second term on the Legislative Commission on Seafood and Aquaculture, Smith has also served on the East Carteret High School Advisory Council, the Carteret County Planning Commission, and the Carteret County Marine Fisheries Advisory Board. He has been on the board of directors of North Carolina Fisheries Association and First Citizens Bank in Beaufort.

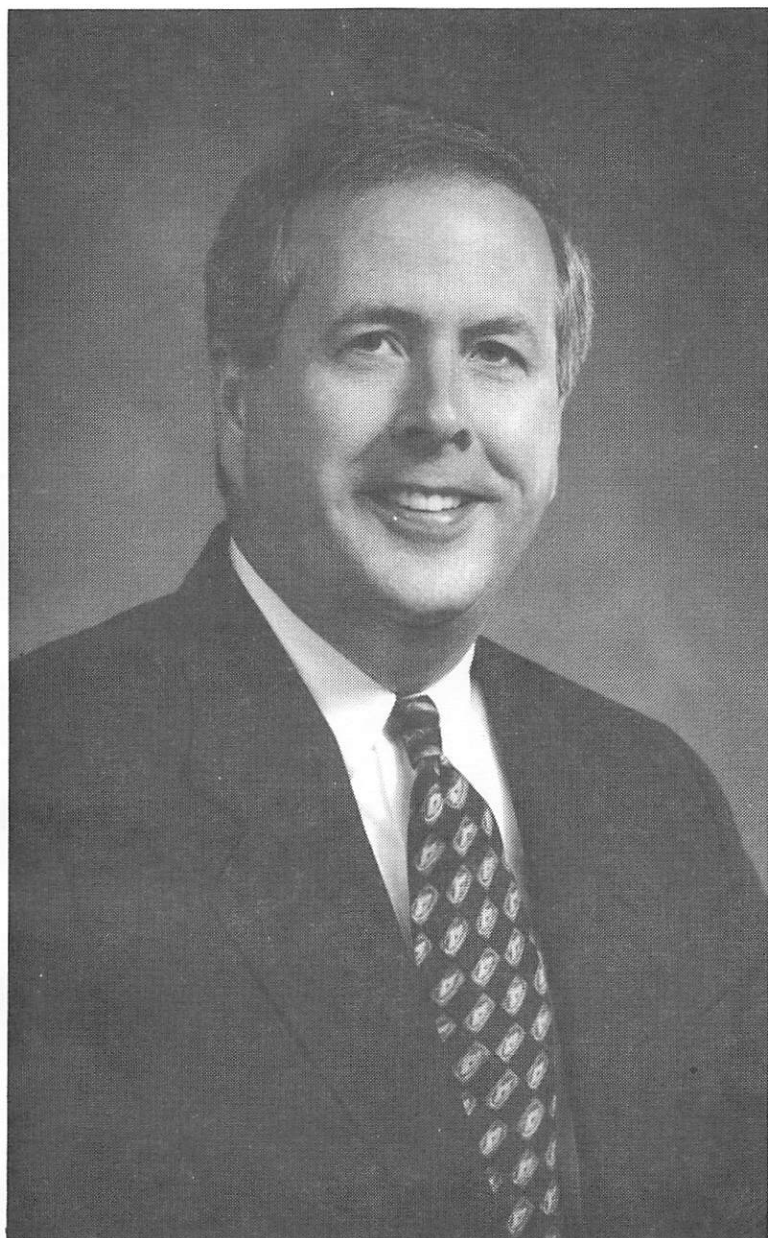

Smith was initiated into Freemasonry by Crissie Wright Lodge No. 741, Beaufort in 1976. He was raised there in May 1977. He served the lodge as Master in 1982 and as secretary 1984-1987.

Masonry has been important in Smith's family. Gerry and his brother Phillip are second generation Masons. Gerry and his father-in-law took their blue lodge degrees together. The two were later joined by Gerry's father for York Rite and Shrine ceremonies.

Gerry has been District Deputy Grand Master and served on numerous Grand Lodge committees. He took the York Rite and Shrine degrees in 1977. He joined the Scottish Rite in 1978. He is a ritual participant in both Scottish Rite and Shrine. He and his wife Becky have also served as Worthy Patron and Worthy Matron of Beaufort Chapter No. 128, Order of Eastern Star. Son Ted is this year's Master of Crissie Wright Lodge No. 741.

He received North Carolina Masonry's highest honor, the Joseph Montfort Medal in 1989. Smith was appointed to the Grand Lodge line, by then Grand Master Bunn T. Phillips, Jr., in 1990.

Smith enjoys cabinetry and woodworking as well as sailing. He's a fan of ACC basketball, the Carolina Panthers, and Dale Jarrett in NASCAR.

THEOPHILUS WALTON CLAPP, III
Grand Secretary

T. WALTON CLAPP, III

T. Walton Clapp, III was born October 27, 1952 in Marion, North Carolina, the son of Theophilus Walton Clapp, Jr. and Vashti Fredonia Dulin Clapp. He attended public school there and later attended Western Piedmont Community College.

Walt is married to Betty Conette. Betty, originally of Wilmington, is Director of Missions at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Raleigh. Before transferring his membership to St. Andrews, Clapp was an elder at Western Boulevard Presbyterian Church in Raleigh.

Walt is a member of Mystic Tie Lodge No. 237 in Marion. In 1974, he managed to surprise his father with his petition for Masonry even though the senior Clapp was serving as Master of the lodge at the time. Walt got a petition from a friend on the local police force who slipped it to the lodge secretary. His father served as Master on all three of Walt's degrees. He was raised in August 1974.

Clapp succeeds Robert P. Dudley. He served as Dudley's assistant for seventeen years before being named to the office. Doris Dudley, wife of the late Grand Secretary, Pete Dudley, remembers that there had been talk of finding a young man to bring to Grand Lodge for training. Pete kept looking. In 1979 Clapp was serving as Master of Mystic Tie Lodge and hosting a district visit of the Grand Master when Pete first spotted him. Pete was impressed. He called Walt's dad and talked to him. Pete asked Walt to move to Raleigh and become his assistant.

According to Doris, while they were in the mountains a few days later, Pete could stand the suspense no longer. Their path home to Raleigh had to go through Marion to get Walt's answer.

As a young man, Walt was a member of DeMolay. He is currently a member of Raleigh York Rite Bodies, Asheville Scottish Rite Bodies, and Oasis Shrine.

In his spare time, Walt enjoys making furniture in his garage workshop. Now a skilled cabinet maker, he bought his first table saw to work off his nervousness the night he was balloted on in his lodge. His Labrador, Obi, is a frequent companion in the shop.

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

(Docket No. 1)

The Grand Master presented M. W. Brother I. Boyd Hopkins, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Distinguished Masonic jurisdictions, and all other Brethren in Freemasonry:

Freemasonry with Meaning—The Masonic experience: what does it mean? Almost everything to some, almost nothing to others. Why so much to some and so little to others? Did we miss the meaning of our Masonic journey?

Let us remember the experience.

Question? "In whom do you put your trust?"

Most of us responded, "In God."

Then we heard, "Your trust being in God, your faith is well-founded. Arise, follow your conductor and fear no danger."

"In God" means different things to different people. My ideas about God were formed in the kindergarten years of my life, my infancy. Those ideas took on the shape and form of my parents, whose ideas were a replica of their parents, ad infinitum. Rarely does one grow out of his childhood religion. To most people God is functional. That is, don't worry, He's going to do it for us. Consider carefully your perception of God. Be honest with your spiritual and religious experiences.

Very early in life I was told that I "had a soul" and that it needed "saving," whether or not I was aware of it. To reinforce my non-entity, in church we sang the words of Isaac Watts: "Would my Sovereign die . . . for such a worm as I?" I have since concluded that I AM a soul. I AM an entity of thinking, feeling, and acting: a person of mind, emotion, and behavior. There are parts of me that need healing. Some healing has happened. The experience of Freemasonry has been extremely influential in the healing process, and still is. At least I know that I am not a worm; I am somebody! I am who I am, but at least I AM! That personal affirmation is the beginning of meaning. There is purpose in my existence; there is a reason for my being; there is a mission in my living; there are deeds to be done.

Everyone of us here knows that we need people with purpose. We need men with a mission. Life must have meaning. Without meaning we become suicidal. The transforming and enlightening experience of Freemasonry offers real meaning to life.

At a low point in his life, the biblical character Moses needed identity: he needed purpose and a mission. He needed healing. Wandering alone in the desert, he came to Mt. Sinai. There he discovered his "vocate": his calling, his purpose, his mission. There he felt called of God to free the Israelites from 430 years of slavery. He had heard of their cries for help and he wanted to help, especially after that very moving experience before "the burning bush." He talked it over with his God. The conversation went something like this:

"God, I am nobody . . ."

Have you ever felt like that?

Moses continued. "How can a 'nobody' go to the king of Egypt? When they ask me who sent me, what shall I tell them?"

In whatever way God "talks" He said to Moses, "Tell them 'I Am Who I Am'; tell them 'I AM' sent you. Tell them Yahweh, Jehovah, God, Divine Love sent you." It was then that Moses' life began to take on meaning: purpose with a mission.

When we can say, "I Am," our life begins to take on meaning. When we become people with purpose, when we become men with a mission; life takes on meaning.

Moses hesitated, "God, I can't do it; you'll have to get someone else."

Have you ever offered excuses when given an opportunity to do good? "I am nobody, I can't do it."

Then Moses remembered his brother, Aaron: intelligent, courageous, sensitive, articulate. They came together, compared notes, developed a plan, decided on strategy. They visited the children of Israel in Egypt. Moses confronted Pharaoh, shared his mission, asserted himself: "Let my people go!" Brothers working together achieved their goals. It took a while, much longer than they had hoped, much more complicated than they thought. However, working together, motivated by Divine Love, they did it. (Exodus 3-12)

Only love is real; only love gives life purpose with a mission. Purpose with a mission, motivated by love, gives life meaning. Brothers working together gives life meaning; brothers working together can accomplish many very noble deeds.

A great man, that Moses. From nobody to somebody. From aimless wanderer to man with purpose and a mission.

Another biblical character, the prophet Isaiah, went to worship, feeling depressed, guilty, sinful, no good.

Have you ever felt that way—out of reach of all that is good, noble, and right? "There is no hope for me," said Isaiah; "I am a sinful man." Have you ever thought that of yourself?

During worship, Isaiah had a vision: he "saw" the Lord. In other words, he made contact with Divine Love. He envisioned people and things and situations as they could be, but now were not. He wanted to do something about it.

Is there a situation in your life or lodge that you would like to aid and assist? The universal questions always are, "Whom shall I send? Who will go? Who will do it for us?"

Isaiah was ready; he had been ready for a long time. He simply had a few kinks to straighten. Finding meaning in his worship experience, feeling better about himself, Isaiah enthusiastically replied, "I will go; send me! If I don't do it, who will?" (Isaiah 6)

Have you ever said that? Did you go? Did you do it? Is it about time for you to go again, to do it again? If you don't, who will? Purpose with a mission gives meaning to life.

1. We hear the lonely cries of little children and teenagers; they need the environment of the Masonic Home for Children at Oxford. What will we brothers do about it?

2. We hear the embarrassing groans of children who think they can not read and learn. They need the lessons of the Scottish Rite Learning Disabilities program. What will we brothers do about it?

3. We hear the painful cries of other children and teenagers; they need the expertise of Shriners' Hospitals. What will brothers do about it?

4. We hear the cries of confusion and loneliness of the elderly; they need the security and comfort of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in Greensboro. What will we brothers do about it?

5. There are the cries that only the York Rite charities can hear and respond to. How will we brothers respond?

6. Then, there are the individual cries that need to be heard and responded to. As brothers, are we listening to each other?

Together, as brothers, but only together, can we hear with our minds, feel with our emotions, and act with our behavior; for we human beings are spiritual animals. Homo sapiens is sacred. There is a mystique about our being. We need daily to state our intent: "Today, I will be and do the best I can with who I am and with what I have simply for the sake of goodness, for the sake of others, with no ulterior motive for credit or reward." It is Freemasonry with meaning.

We spiritual beings have, by and large, created our own religions. Our creations have been our attempt to find meaning and value in life, ultimate meaning and value: life with purpose and a mission. We need to unravel the mystique of our being: that "something else," that restlessness, that something transcends the here and now, that feeling that "there must be more to life than this." O soul, find thyself and be at peace! The experience of Freemasonry can help us. In moving dramatically from the darkness into the light we discover that reality is not "up there" or "out there." Reality is "down here" and "in here;" for "the kingdom of God is within you." (Luke 17:21)

There is some reason why we aspire to goodness and greatness. We want to be better; we want to do better; some of us want to be and do our very best. Perhaps our likeness to the image of God has something to do with it.

The meaning of our life on this earth is all about how we relate to each other. The meaning of Freemasonry is all about good men relating to each other as brothers. We relate to each other in precisely the same measure that we relate to our perception of God. We search our vocabulary for words to describe the ineffable Word: Jahweh, Jehovah, God, Divine Love. We want to believe; we must believe; we cannot believe; but to state our creed may be an arduous task. Simply remember that "actions speak louder than words."

We wrestle with the emotional turmoil of our soul, trying to analyze who it is we are, what it is we feel, what it is we must do. We are restless until we move out of our darkness and work in the light of Divine Love. We act and do not understand our actions. We behave and wonder at our behavior. Having done whatever it is we've done, we feel either good or guilty. Either one excites that oft-asked question, "Why did I do that?" If good, we find it difficult to affirm our goodness. If guilty, oh, how very easy to deprecate our self. The admonition to "Know thyself" may be more frightening than we first thought. In our effort at identity, at self-awareness, at salvation, we create an image of god that best works for us.

Freemasonry with meaning is found in how effectively we relate to God and to each other as brothers.

I remember early in my Masonic experience that a brother prayed for me. It was the most beautiful prayer I had ever heard offered in my behalf. "Almighty Father . . . grant that this candidate for Masonry may dedicate and devote his life to thy service, and become a true and faithful brother among us. Endue him with a competency of thy divine wisdom, that by the secrets of our art he may be better enabled to display the beauties of holiness, to the honor of thy holy name."

I rose from my knees, and in blind faith and trust, followed my conductor, believing that he would do me no harm and would not lead me astray. It was an effective lesson in trust.

You remember it too, don't you? It was Freemasonry with meaning.

The most striking, and still the most memorable, of my Masonic experiences was when I was asked to deposit something of a metallic kind, only to discover that I was entirely destitute.

What does one give when one has nothing? One gives of one's self: "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I unto the." (Acts 2:6)

Acceptance, forgiveness, love. What other gifts are there? Who we really are is not determined by what we have.

If we can ease a brother's sorrow
And aid him in distress,
If we can brighten his tomorrow
With deeds of kindness;
Then we have found God's meaning
Of the word called Charity.
For when we give ourselves away,
We have found life's mystery. —Anonymous

It is Freemasonry with meaning.

Another Masonic experience started like this. "In a former degree you had a brother to pray for you, but you will now pray for yourself." There was silence. I did not know how to pray for myself. After all, in that little white frame church on the hill we sang the words of C. D. Meigs: "Lord, help me live from day to day In such a self-forgetful way, That even when I kneel to pray, My prayer shall be—for others." I shall never forget my meditation while kneeling there: an affirmation that if I was to continue my Masonic journey, I was responsible for the consequences of my thinking and feeling and acting, even though I did not know what the future held for me. Through Youth, through Manhood, through Age, I was and am responsible.

You remember it, too, don't you? You learned the same lesson didn't you. It was Freemasonry with meaning.

I remember that in my Masonic experience I was "raised" from a dead horizontal to a living perpendicular. A lively reason to my being, an exciting mission in my living: to go forth among my brothers—

"foot to foot," to go out of my way to aid and assist;
"knee to knee," to pray for my brother's welfare;
"breast to breast," to share our friendship, to hold sacred our secrets;
"hand to back," to support a stumbling brother, no matter why he stumbled;

"mouth to ear," to whisper kind counsel, encouragement, hope, love.

It is Freemasonry with meaning.

Believing creates purpose. Purpose creates mission. As a Mason, I believe that the mission, the task, of Freemasonry is to raise the moral, social, intellectual, and spiritual conscience of society by making good men better. We do that by teaching them the lessons of the ancient spiritual leaders and philosophers through dramatic ritual, lecture, symbolism, and other effective means of education and leadership development.

Doing our Masonic mission continually gives meaning to our Masonic experience. As long as we live and relate as brothers, so may it ever be—Freemasonry with meaning.

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

(Docket No. 4)

The Following report of Brother David Scobie, Certified Public Accountant, Auditor, was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of The Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina (Grand Lodge) as of December 31, 1996 and 1995, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Grand Lodge as of December 31, 1996 and 1995, and the results of its activities and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were made by the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplemental information, schedule of activities and changes in unrestricted net assets—general fund by sub-activity and schedule of activities—operating fund unrestricted net assets, are presented for purposes of additional information and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such supplemental information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, accordingly, we express no opinion on them.

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID E. SCOBIE
Grand Lodge Accountant

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATOR MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 9)

The following report of Brother John A. Rose, Administrator of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc. was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I am excited in writing this, my third report as Administrator of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. This year has been a most rewarding year. A decade of decision making has come to an end. The ensuing year will bring a host of improvements in the form of a new Care and Wellness Center, and a new program offering more economical and higher quality Assisted Living in a remodeled building. As I said last year, "... our program improvements ... will position the Home to serve in the 21st century". The Board of Directors report will have more to say about this important decision.

The staff of our Home has worked hard to bring our services into conformance with modern requirements from a host of organizations and agencies which govern Continuing Care Retirement Communities and Long Term Care facilities. We continue to take the preliminary steps required to qualify the Home to be eligible for additional resources and to provide Assisted Living services to those not in the Care Center. This will forestall a premature admission into the Care Center and results in less cost to the Home and more dignity for the resident.

The care of residents continues to be outstanding. We can be proud that our Home is just that - a Home - and not an institution. We continue to look for ways to bring about this concept. For instance, we are slowly improving the ambiance in our dining room by removing old partitions, installing a salad bar for most meals, using tablecloths, having "open seating" during meals, etc. We have also purchased a satellite dish which offers our residents more and clearer television stations. "Choice" is still the operative word. The wish of residents is important to bringing about a Home environment. For example, residents helped rewrite their "Guide to Daily Living" handbook. They are choosing which new dining room chair the Home will purchase. They selected their own 6 additional television stations (TBS, CNN, A&E, ESPN, FAM, and ESPN2).

No longer does MESH operate on the concept of, "We know what's good for you". Residents continue to be consulted when a matter is important to them.

As was our goal, formal protocols have been improved. Record keeping and documentation is now that which is required of a professional organization. Our Social Services Department now acts as an advocate for the rights of patients and residents as well as assessing the needs of applicants before they are approved by the Board of Directors for admission. We have completed our analysis of the application system and implemented improvements to assure the process is orderly and manageable.

We continue to stress the philosophy that our employees "... work in the resident's Home" rather than "Residents live in our facility". Our residents are Masonry and Eastern Star's best customers.

Our Human Resource Department has done a wonderful job of monitoring the employment, training, evaluation, retention and release of employees. This complex field is required in the modern era as we have a family of over 125 full and part time employees. In the words of one of the Directors of this Home, Dr. Corbett L. Quinn of Magnolia, North Carolina, "There is nothing more effective and efficient than a properly compensated and happy employee."

We have made good progress on building maintenance issues which have been deferred or delayed during the expansion study. Your Directors are catching up with the necessary capital expenditures which pertain to the environment, health and safety issues. In turn, we maintain a more safe and efficient home for the residents and an effective work area for our employees.

Resident Statistics

The brethren will be quick to notice that the waiting list has been reduced by 75% in the last year. As well, the average time it takes to be admitted has been reduced from a matter of years to a matter of months. The primary reason for this is that those who are on the waiting list are only those who truly need and want the services of our Home. Those whose names have "come up" and who wish to decline are removed from the list and must wait one year before they may reapply. Our Home is in the business of meeting needs and we wish to respond quickly. MESH should not be a fail-safe for applicants who occupy a position on the list until they have depleted all their assets while their health care needs escalate to the highest proportion.

Each resident served in your Masonic and Eastern Star Home represents more than a name. Each name is tangible evidence that Masons and Eastern Star members accept their obligation. Charity is love and your continued love is needed. Masons will continue to set an example of love in the world.

numbers and with great interest. Due to the contributions and special efforts of our advisory staff and students, the Campus Tracks is being mailed to every Masonic Lodge in North Carolina. Just as our N. C. Mason, our campus newspaper is very informative and the beauty of this project is that the students do a big part of the research and writing of articles. A special thanks is extended to Mike and Jeannie Soehnlein, senior advisors, who have given a great deal of their time, expenses and love to see this paper inform and educate our Masons, alumni and interested people. For those who read the Campus Tracks, the reader will note the new students who have been admitted to the Masonic Home for Children.

Since admissions, like education is a focal point for our Masonic Home, our Masonic Lodges are encouraged to be sensitive to the needs of the children in their communities. The census will vary throughout the year and an average number for 1996 was 138 children. There are many more children throughout our state that could benefit from the quality care that is provided on a daily basis at our Home and we hope you will help us to help those children who are needy and deserving. Our Home can accommodate up to 200 children and your efforts will be important and appreciated as we work together to admit new children.

In addition to special programs and events, our Masonic Home is deeply grateful for the outstanding work that was done on St. John's Day on June 22, 1996. It was estimated that over 12,000 Masons, their families and friends participated in this annual celebration. As this is the largest Masonic event in the state every year, your involvement and participation makes this occasion a complete success. A special thanks is extended to our three Shrine Temples, Amran, Oasis and Sudan, as the Shriners provide an outstanding parade, delicious food and an atmosphere of fellowship that is enjoyed by everyone in attendance. We are deeply grateful to Brother Lloyd Young and his St. John's Day Committee for the tremendous time and dedicated work which is given each year toward planning and seeing that this event continues to grow. As you plan to attend this celebration in 1997, be sure to mark your calendars for June 21, 1997 as this will be the time we come together with our lounge chairs and a big smile and enjoy the day on your beautiful campus. After all, the cost for admission is free.

In conclusion, the children and staff at the Masonic Home for Children extend to our Board of Directors our deep appreciation for the support, love and prayers you gave us during 1996. Your guidance, time and leadership has been vital as we seek to offer the best in care to all the children. In addition to our Board of Directors, our Masonic Home Family extends to Grand Master William H. Simpson our appreciation for his serving as Chairman of our Board of Directors for 1996. His sensitivity proved to be vital in the major decisions our Board studied and approved.

We also express our appreciation to three of our Board of Directors who have completed their three year term on our Board. To Brother Stanley L. Allen, Brother Dennis A. Leoni and Brother Dan C. Rice, we are grateful for your faithfulness and outstanding work as your leadership has been very important. Our Masonic Home will continue to look forward to your support in the future.

To all of our wonderful Masons, Alumni and friends of the Masonic Home for Children, our large family extends a big thanks for all you have and continue to do to assist us. Come to see us as we would be delighted to see you at any time. May God bless and guide you as you are a blessing to all of us.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN AT OXFORD

(Docket No. 12)

The following report of the Board of Directors of The Masonic Home For Children At Oxford was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors for the Masonic Home For Children at Oxford conducted their quarterly meetings during February, May, August and November 1996 on the Masonic Home campus. All the committees of the Board have worked with great care and dedication and all proposals have been presented to the total Board for final decisions. With each decision, the priority and quality care of the children have always been our deepest consideration.

During 1996, a great deal of emphasis has been focused on how to best utilize our campus programs to benefit the children. A great deal of study has been done on the beef operation and the expense of this ongoing project. After the results were gathered, the Long Range Planning Committee recommended to phase out the beef operation. The Board of Directors approved the recommendation and further decided to protect the land by leasing the farm property. A local Granville County beef farmer was selected, from a list of prospects, to utilize the farm land and purchase the beef cows owned by the Masonic Home and add a number of his personal cows and maintain a beef operation on our farm. This resident will lease the property for five years at which time a lease agreement will be reviewed. It was also determined by our Board, since a number of businesses have offered to buy portions of the Masonic Home Property, which is over three hundred acres, that none of the property will be sold. Our Board realizes that our Masonic Home is in the business of caring for needy and deserving children and to sell any of the property would reduce our heritage and wonderful history which has made our beautiful campus a focus for Masonry throughout our state.

Although we have phased out the beef herd operation, approximately twelve of our children will still be involved in the 4-H Lamb Project. As we mentioned last year, this was a pilot project and as a result, the children did very well with their first group of lambs in 1996 and were all shown and purchased above market price. The children were able to receive some of the proceeds from the sale of their lambs which encourages other children to get involved in future 4-H Lamb Projects.

As a matter of important information, expenses which were placed in the beef operation have been transferred to a positive and better structured educational program for the children. The children attend five of the local Granville County Schools and the support and guidance the Masonic Home for Children has received from school teachers and officials has been outstanding.

At the present time, to enhance the educational endeavors and challenges of our students, a centralized media and resource center is being developed in the basement of the York Rite Memorial Chapel. Already, this area is being used as a study hall with the support of tutors to assist the children with their studies. A portion of this study area will be converted and established as a computer center with six to ten up-to-date computers to be used by the students. Resource books are presently being gathered to establish a library so the children can work on research projects and for personal reading. It is vital that each child have access to materials and equipment so he or she can make the best grades possible in his or her school work.

Since education is important to all of our students, the Independent Living Program for college students on campus continued to be a success. This program is utilized by our students once they graduate from J. F. Webb High School. All students in the Independent Living Program are required to attend the local Vance-Granville Community College, work a part-time job and maintain a C or better average in their grades. Once the college students complete two years at the community college, they can transfer to a four year college or enter the work force. The Independent Living Program has already produced several success stories and as a number of our alumni have stated, "We wish we had a program of this nature when we lived on campus years ago."

The census on the campus of the Masonic Home for Children varies with an average population of students during 1996 at 138. At the end of 1996, the census showed 60 girls and 67 boys for a total of 127 children in our care. This is four more than the 1995 census. During 1996, a total of 74 children were admitted with 70 being discharged. In most cases, the parent or guardian removed their child or children as the home environment stabilized or the children had improved to the point they were able to return home and function in a more positive atmosphere. There were children however, who needed more care than our staff or houseparents were able to provide and as a result some of these children were returned home with the recommendation that treatment or more extensive care be provided. As our Masons are aware, the Masonic Home for Children is not a treatment center but a long term residential home. As a long term facility, we have students who have lived on our campus for over ten years as their home environment never materialized and their long term stay has proven to be successful. As a Board of Directors, we encourage and stress to all of our Masonic Lodges that space is available to receive more students who are recommended by a local Blue Lodge and are indeed needy and deserving of the kind of care our Home can and will provide. If any of our Masons have questions or need information about admissions, please call the Masonic Home for Children or contact Brother Donald Sizemore, Director of Admissions at the Masonic Home at (919) 693-5111 and he will gladly assist you.

During 1996, approximately 12,000 Masons, their families and friends attended the annual St. John's Day "Under the Oaks" on the beautiful campus of the Masonic Home for Children on June 22. This outstanding event is the largest Masonic celebration in the state of North Carolina and due to the continued growing support, this annual event is getting bigger and better each year. We are grateful to our three special Shrine Temples, Amran, Oasis and Sudan, as they always provide a great parade and a delicious meal for all of those present.

By giving their personal time and expenses, our Shriners always comment it is worth all they do to see the faces of the children and the large crowd which greets them as they march along College Street and on the campus of our Masonic Home. We continue to offer our deep appreciation to Brother Lloyd Young, Chairman, and his committee for St. John's Day, for the excellent work which is done every year to make this Masonic program a complete success. As a reminder, St. John's Day will be held at the Masonic Home for Children on June 21, 1997. Admission is free and all that is needed is a big smile and a lounge chair to make this day a memorable time.

Financially, the Board of Directors continues to study our overall operation during each quarterly meeting and the enclosed information is a vital way to keep our Masons up to date on monies which are given to provide quality care for all the children.

As a Board of Directors, we are encouraged with the assistance all of the departments provide to keep their costs in line and in many cases, under budget. We are grateful for the fine work Brother David Ford, Business Manager, and Mrs. Mary Helen Parrott, Financial Secretary, provide in keeping accurate books and monitoring all expenses. In addition, we appreciate the support and guidance of our Chairman of Finance, Brother Dan C. Rice and his committee, for the fine work they provide in helping us to audit our books throughout the fiscal year, and keeping our Board informed on all income and expenses.

As we prepare for the new 1997 budget year, we want to encourage all of our Masonic Lodges, Masons, Alumni and special supporters to assist our Masonic Home as your contributions and gifts are vital to our ongoing program. Our priority is to maintain quality care for every child and as we work together, we will see many dreams and goals attained.

Our Board of Directors would also encourage our Masonic Lodges and Masons to utilize the talents of Brother Jim Medlin, Director of Development for the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, as he is always willing to assist interested philanthropist with information regarding wills and bequests as the future of our Home and its endowment are vital to the future of our Masonic Home for Children.

As a matter of information, a Comparative Statement of Income and a Comparative Statement of Expenses for 1996 is listed for our readers to study. It is important to note that your donations and support are special and every dollar will be utilized to provide the best care for every child on our campus.

As we conclude our Annual Report, we extend our deep appreciation to Grand Master William H. Simpson for his wonderful leadership and guidance during his year as Chairman of our Board of Directors. We also want to offer our thanks to three of our Board Members who completed their three year term as active and supportive members. To Brother Stanley L. Allen, Brother Dennis A. Leoni and Brother Dan C. Rice, we thank you for your dedication and outstanding work as your leadership was deeply appreciated. May God continue to guide and direct our Board now and in the future as all of us want to make the best decisions for all of the children.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN AT OXFORD

(Docket No. 13)

The following report of the Committee on The Masonic Home For Children At Oxford was received, entered on the record and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In compliance with Regulation 34-18, The Masonic Home for Children Committee met at The Home in Oxford on February 1, 1997, at 12:00 noon. Those present were Brothers Charles E. Cathey, Chairman; Clarence E. Hilliard, Jr., Gene T. Jernigan and Randolph W. Whitley. Brother Silas Jordan was unable to attend. The first order of business was lunch in the cafeteria. There we had a delicious meal and had an opportunity to inspect the condition of the cafeteria, along with the quality of the food served. We found the cafeteria in excellent condition, very clean and the food was delicious. The committee was pleasantly surprised to learn that through efficient management, food donations and purchases from a food bank, the cost of meals per child is $1.00. The committee would like to commend Hazel Davidson and her staff on a job well done.

At 1:00 P.M. the committee met in the Board Room with David Grissom and the following members of his staff: David Ford, Brent Stewart, Mike Norwood, Hazel Davidson and Mike Haskins. Each of the above spoke to the committee about their respective areas and about what has recently been done and future plans. Parts of their report will appear later in this report.

The committee was then conducted on a tour of the Oxford campus by David Grissom. There is very little evidence left that a major storm has recently passed through the area. We understand that the campus at our Children's Home was the first place in Oxford cleaned up after the storm. This was a result of cooperation of the entire campus under Mike Norwood's direction. We should also be thankful to our Heavenly Father that none of the falling trees hit any of the buildings. The committee was very impressed with the condition of the campus and it's buildings and it is obvious that Mike Norwood and his people are going the extra mile to maintain our home.

As we toured the York Rite Chapel, we were delighted to learn of the plans of Mike Haskins to set up a computer learning center in the basement of the chapel. This committee believes that the staff at the Home is trying to prepare the children there for higher education and to go into the world prepared to be leaders and contributors to our society.

The cottages were immaculately clean and we found the house parents strict but providing the needed love and concern for the children. It is a unanimous recommendation of the committee that each sleeping quarters in the cottages have a battery powered smoke detector installed, that organized fire drills be conducted and these drills be documented for liability purposes. More and better marked escape routes are also recommended.

In conclusion, this committee wishes to report to the Grand Lodge that The Masonic Home for Children is being operated in an efficient manner. The children from all appearance were happy and seemed to be enjoying themselves. The Masons of North Carolina are indeed fortunate and blessed to have people who truly have the best interest of our children at heart and who obviously put so much love into their daily work.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES E. CATHEY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 16)

The following report was received and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in MSA was adopted and the matter of finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Representative attended the 78th annual meeting of the Masonic Service Association held in the Adams Mark Hotel, Tulsa, Oklahoma on Monday February 17, 1997 with the conference of Grand Masters.

It was reported that as a result of the change last year in the name of the Association to "The Masonic Service Association of North America", two Canadian Grand Lodges, Manitoba and Quebec have become members of the MSA.

During the year 1996, the MSA put out appeals for Disaster Relief for Washington State and North Carolina. Additionally, $1,000.00 was received by the MSA to assist Costa Rica in their recovery from hurricane damage.

The MSA hospital visitation program continues to render a valuable service to our Masonic brothers who are patients at the VA Medical Center. Your MSA Representative visited the VA Medical Centers at Fayetteville, Durham and Salisbury during 1996 and met with the MSA Field Representatives at each facility. The work they and their assistants are doing as volunteers is commendable and deserves the gratitude of our Fraternity.

It was reported that since its inception in 1923, the very popular Short Talk Bulletin now has 888 issues in print. All of these issues are still available through MSA for a cost of $0.50 each. The Short Talk Bulletins are printed and issued each month by the MSA and are available by subscription through the MSA.

The Masonic Information Center, a branch of the MSA, continues to address two basic areas of concern:

1. To make members of the Fraternity, their families, and friends more knowledgeable about Freemasonry and
2. To make members of the general public more aware of the Fraternity by providing them with factual and accurate information about Freemasonry.

The Masonic Information Center has produced the following booklets and brochures:

"What's a Mason"

"There is No Sin Symbols"

"Facts About Freemasonry"

"A Response to the Critics of Freemasonry"

The Materials that have been published by the Masonic Information Center have been of invaluable help to our Fraternity.

I make the following recommendations:

1. That we continue our membership in and support of the Masonic Service Association.
2. That the lodges and members of this Grand Jurisdiction be kept informed by appropriate means of the availability of the educational materials available from the Masonic Service Association.
3. That the Grand Master continue to schedule visits to the VA Medical Centers located in Asheville, Salisbury, Durham and Fayetteville, and that other Grand Lodge officers accompany him on these visits when their schedules permit.
4. That we increase our contribution to the Masonic Service Association should additional funds become available.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 17)

The following report was received and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership was adopted, and the matter of finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Representative attended the annual meeting of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association held at the Adams Mark Hotel, Tulsa, Oklahoma on Monday, February 17, 1997.

The meeting was called to order by Most Worshipful Edgar N. Peppler, Past Grand Master of New Jersey, President. The meeting was held in conjunction with the annual conference of Grand Masters.

The George Washington Masonic National Memorial is one of the great Masonic edifices in existence today and ranks as a leading tourist attraction in the Washington, D.C. and Alexandria, Virginia area. A great deal of positive Masonic public relations is generated by the thousands who visit the Memorial each year.

It was reported by Most Worshipful Brother Don Robey, the Executive Secretary-Treasurer that over 4,000 people attended a non-alcoholic New Year's Eve Party at the Memorial to participate in planned cultural events and to witness a spectacular fireworks display on the front grounds at midnight in celebration of the advent of the New Year, 1997.

Much emphasis continues to be placed on keeping the Masons and general public across the country informed about the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. A very attractive color brochure has been printed and is available in quantity upon request. A video entitled "A Tour of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial" has been produced and is available for a cost of $20.00 from the office of the Executive Secretary. The video is done very professionally and makes an excellent lodge program. It is also an excellent Masonic relations tool to be shown to civic and church organizations.

Lodges are encouraged to visit the Memorial as individuals members or as a group. Guided tours for groups are available by notifying in advance the office of the Executive Secretary-Treasurer to arrange a schedule.

The George Washington Masonic National Memorial is a majestic Masonic structure, which contains a museum, library, works of art, and many valuable artifacts pertaining to the life of George Washington, patriot, President, and Mason. A visitor is greeted in the magnificent Memorial Hall by a 17-foot bronze statue of George Washington, as the Charter Worshipful Master of Alexandria Lodge No. 22.

The maintenance and preservation of this important majestic Masonic building deserves the financial support of the Masons in every Grand Jurisdiction of our country. I therefore, make the following recommendations:

1. That we continue our membership in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.
2. That this Grand Jurisdiction continue to promote visitation and support of the Memorial through appropriate articles in the North Carolina Mason.
3. That we increase our contribution to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial as additional funds become available.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

(Docket No. 20)

The following report of the Grand Historian was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

It has been ten years since our Grand Lodge was busily commemorating and celebrating its Bicentennial. The several Grand Masters and other Masons had been preparing the way for 1987 for several prior years and when that year finally arrived, these preparations proved their worth in the general excellence of the various events and other efforts to properly celebrate the Bicentennial. We were also blessed that year with a Mason uniquely qualified to lead the Craft in 1987-88, Grand Master Eddie P. Stiles. His planning and leadership greatly enhanced the overall excellence of the commemoration.

The Bicentennial Year was highlighted by two emergent communications of the Grand Lodge; on October 3 in Tarboro to dedicate and consecrate the Masonic Marker which had been erected on the Town Common in 1976 to commemorate the founding of the Grand Lodge in that city in 1787; and the Bicentennial communication and banquet in Raleigh on December 5. Each of these events was well attended by Masons of all ranks from all areas of the state.

Numerous souvenirs of the Bicentennial were available before, during and following 1987, and these are treasured today by those who obtained them.

If there was a down side to the observance, it was the failure of so many of our lodges to respond to Grand Master Stiles' call for the preparation and submission of individual lodge histories. It had been hoped and planned that the completion of these histories would provide a permanent record of North Carolina Masonry through the years, and that they would form a basis for the preparation of a comprehensive history of the Grand Lodge. It was also hoped the lodges would periodically update their histories and thus bequeath to Masons of the future a complete history of North Carolina Masonry, the likes of which does not now exist.

Many lodges did prepare excellent histories and we are all indebted to those lodges.

It was recognized that many lodges, particularly the older ones, would be hampered in their efforts to prepare histories by the absence of minutes and other records covering much of their existence. Many, many of our lodges, over the years, have suffered great losses from fires and other disasters. Also, some meetings and other events were never properly recorded in years past, and some records were lost or misplaced, or even stolen. The lodges thus affected could only piece together the best histories possible under the circumstances.

Fortunately, all is not lost. The lodges which did not prepare histories for the Bicentennial Year can still do so. But each year that passes renders the task ever more difficult. Some more records are going to be lost due to various causes; many of our older members who are, in many instances, rich sources of lodge history have passed away since 1987 and many more will leave us in the years just ahead. We urgently need to take steps to permanently maintain our records and to probe the memories of our senior members before too much more history is forever lost.

The preservation of lodge records is relatively simple and is not prohibitively expensive. The records can be microfilmed and the film placed in a safe place, such as a safe deposit box. The records then would be protected from fire, vandalism, theft and such, and could be easily retrieved. But time and opportunity will not long remain. Lodge Masters are strongly urged to appoint competent brethren to immediately begin work on record preservation, memory probing and history preparation, to the end that Masons of North Carolina will someday have a truly great history of their lodges and Grand Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,
REYNOLD S. DAVENPORT
Grand Historian

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

(Docket No. 21)

The following report of the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Mason was received and entered on the record:

Through the efforts of our editor, Brother Ric Carter, we believe that the Masons of North Carolina continue to enjoy the finest Masonic paper being published by any Grand Lodge.

Board officers were elected as follows: J. Carroll Simmons, Chairman; Bunn T. Phillips, Jr., Vice-Chairman; and Dalton W. Mayo, Secretary.

Our thanks go to our Grand Lodge officers and staff for their cooperation and assistance to Brother Carter in the publication of our Masonic paper.

We wish to commend Brother Carter for his continued good work as editor and manager of our paper. Through his efforts during the past year, The North Carolina Mason again received first place as Publications Regularly Edited by the Entrant and will now be entered in the National competition. He received first place for his article entitled "Masonry Loses an Old Friend" which honored Brother Pete Dudley. We join Brother Carter in being proud of these accomplishments.

Although costs continue to rise, we have managed to keep our expenditures within budget. Our largest change in the 1997 budget will be the purchase of additional equipment. This will enable us to establish a place on the internet, thereby giving us more access to information for The North Carolina Mason. Your Board of Publication is still interested in our Masonic paper being of the highest quality in content and purpose.

The members of the Board of Publication and our editor are grateful to all our Masonic brothers who have submitted pictures and articles for The North Carolina Mason. Your continued support helps to make our paper widely accepted as a medium for spreading Freemasonry throughout the state and nation.

Respectfully submitted,
J. CARROLL SIMMONS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUBORDINATE LODGE SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

(Docket No. 22)

The following report of the Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee is pleased to submit the following report of its activities for the Grand Lodge year 1996-97.

The Committee has seen an increase in fund-raising activity by lodges during this past year but there are still a lot of lodges that do not avail themselves of the privilege. This is probably due mostly to a lack of knowledge about fund-raising or a misunderstanding of the fund-raising privilege. The committee sincerely hopes that more lodges will make better use of the privileges extended by Reg. 43-12, and raise substantial extra money for our Masonic Charities.

The Committee is pleased to report that most of the fund-raising activity require little more than routine action by either the lodges conducting the activity or the committee.

The Committee has continued to see improvement during this past Grand Lodge year in lodges conducting their fund-raising activities in compliance with the CODE. Lodges are asking more questions regarding what they can do, and how to do fund raising. The committee encourages this and pledges its continued support to helping lodges in any way it can.

Members of the committee have traveled to numerous lodges across this grand jurisdiction talking to the officers and members on the subject of fund-raising. On every such occasion, the committee member or members have been well received and have seen tremendous evidence that by and large, the membership all across the state is very interested in fund-raising and especially they are interested in doing fund-raising correctly. The committee will continue to accept invitations to visit lodges and discuss fund-raising with the brethren as it can. It frequently takes an appreciable period of time to work out a schedule for such a visit, due to prior commitments and the work load of a committee member. Lodges interested in having a member of the committee come speak to them must keep in mind and make their request well in advance.

The committee genuinely desires to be of service to all the lodges in the state in regard to their fund-raising efforts. The committee wants to help, but they must know that the lodges need help. The committee encourages all lodges to seek Committee help in fund-raising activities. The Committee doesn't know a lodge needs help if the lodge doesn't ask for that help.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWIN L. BECTON, Chairman

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

(Docket No. 23)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Research and Development was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

This year's Research & Development Committee Seminars were held at sixteen locations in January and February. Attendance was up by approximately 15 percent from 1996. The evaluation sheets filled out by participants reported overall rating of "very favorable" to "excellent." The seminar format was different from those of the past few years. Rather than prepare "canned texts," we provided our presenters with the necessary materials to introduce topics that raised questions about Masonry. The Committee sought to challenge our Brethren to think—to engage in open discussion and to come to their own answers to the questions raised in the presentations.

The topic for the first hour of the seminars was "Back to Basics." In this hour the presenters raised questions relating to basic Masonic morality, of the quality rather than the quantity of members.

The second hour of the program was presented by the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications and consisted of a condensed version of their Program for Progress. It, too, was favorably received. Relations between the two committees was fraternal and productive. The Committee on Research and Development looks forward to future cooperation between the two committees.

The third hour, entitled "A Knock at the Door" dealt with clandestine Masonry, regular Masonry, and visitation. For the purpose of information, Adoptive (women only), Co-Masonry (men and women), as well as various forms of irregular and clandestine Masonry were defined and briefly discussed.

Much of the third hour was spent discussing a case in which a black Mason from a lodge in a Grand Jurisdiction recognized by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina wished to visit one of our lodges. The visitor was eventually seated, and participants generally applauded the Master's decision to seat the visitor over the objection of a member.

The Committee has also been busy implementing the Speakers Bureau. A letter has been sent to all subordinate lodges to release the first edition of The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina Speakers Bureau. The letter also asks the several lodges to provide the Committee with the names of potential additional speakers. Future issues will be included in an existing Grand Lodge publication, probably the North Carolina Masonic Directory.

The present publication of a printed Speakers Bureau is only a first step. Eventually, we hope to put the Speaker Bureau "on-line," via an Internet "Web Site" or a "Bulletin Board." This would allow a continuous, timely, and inexpensive means of updating the list without having to resort to expensive mailings.

Before this can happen, however a number of issues remain to be resolved. For example, the Internet provides on-line access to millions of computer-users; and the potential for invasions of privacy and harassment of speakers is a major factor to be considered.

In the meantime, we will continue to update the printed Speakers Bureau and to address the "on-line" alternatives. In both cases our main concern is to avoid a situation in which Grand Lodge staff would be asked to answer telephone request for information about the Speakers Bureau.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN B. HOLT, P.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC PUBLIC RELATIONS

(Docket No. 24)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Public Relations was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Masonic Committee on Public Relations met periodically and continues programs previously initiated as well as working on new programs.

During the ensuing year, we plan on having a new "Open House" program. Lodges throughout the state have reported that they have continued this program with success.

We have requested and expect a bill to be passed in the North Carolina legislature, authorizing a license plate with the "Masonic Emblem." When this is accomplished, you will receive a mailing regarding this. Before it can be implemented, we must have several hundred requests for the plate.

Brother Jim Reddish, the newest member of our committee, who is a partner in a radio station, has created some nice "Blue Lodge/N. C. Grand Lodge" information cassettes for radio stations.

Masonic relations in North Carolina seem to be at an all-time high and we look for this to continue.

Public Relations is important to our fraternity, we need the community to know who we are. Public relations is putting your "best foot" forward, the strategy of dealing with the press and the representatives of the public.

The idea of public relations is that if you lead a horse to water, even if you can't make him drink, maybe you can make him swim.

W. CALVIN GADDY, Chairman

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC CEREMONIES AND MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

(Docket No. 25)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications was received, entered on the record and referred to the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications Committee, comprised of M. W. I. Boyd Hopkins, W. J. Richard Holshouser, W. Ed Lawing, W. H. Lloyd Wilkerson and W. James E. Vann, completed another banner year. With the completion of the renewal program entitled, "Program for Progress", a series of ten regional meetings across the Grand Jurisdiction during September and October was conducted. Hundreds of the brethren attended, the notebooks were distributed to the Blue Lodge representatives present, the program was explained in detail, questions were answered, enthusiasm was generated, and strong acceptance of the program was evidenced. An evaluation of each regional meeting was made by the attendees, and the results indicated that the program has been needed for a long time; that the program, if instituted properly will serve significantly to regenerate and revitalize Freemasonry in North Carolina; that the Mentor, Leadership Development, and the Membership Involvement ment sections of the program are and can be very important vehicles in improving the effectiveness of our Order.

In January of 1997, the Research and Development Committee kindly permitted this Committee to participate in each of their meetings, and the program was once again explained to those in attendance. Again, the reception of "Program for Progress" was enthusiastic. There appears to be a need and a hunger for this type program. In the district training sessions, already conducted by several District Deputy Grand Masters, it has been reported that the "grass roots" of Masonry in North Carolina welcomes this program with fervor. Numerous reports of improvements on the local level have been reported, and as the program unfolds more fully in 1997, under the direction of the DDGM, significant strides are expected to be witnessed.

The video, "Freemasonry: A Fraternity for Life", is still available from the Grand Secretary, and all Blue Lodges in the state are encouraged to utilize this fine production. It is an important part of the Mentoring program, and it can be an extremely useful tool for Masons and non-Masons alike.

The Committee will meet with the DDGM's and DDGL's at the Annual Communication to discuss the responsibilities during the coming years and to solicit their support.

Finally mission statement has been prepared for adoption, and it should be presented at the Annual Communication.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES E. VANN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER'S COMMITTEE ON YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS

(Docket No. 26)

The following report of the Grand Master's Committee on Masonic Youth Organizations was received and entered on the record and the portion pertaining to Finance was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Our Masonic Youth Organizations continue to be a well-spring of activity across the state. Membership in these organizations provides our young people with leadership training, education in those solid moral and ethical principles which are the hallmark of Masonry, as well as social opportunities which provide memories for ages to come. It cannot be adequately emphasized how important these activities are, not only for the benefit provided to our young people, but also in the regard that these are the future members of our Masonic lodges and Eastern Star chapters.

Over the past year, there have been some leadership changes in our youth organizations that are of distinct note. Our State Executive Officer for DeMolay, Brother E. John Elmore, was installed as the Grand Master of DeMolay International, and we feel extremely pleased and proud that one of ours has been accorded such a high honor. This is simply a testimony to John's diligence, hard work, and character. We in North Carolina have been truly fortunate to have such a fine leader to guide the activities of our DeMolay chapters over these last several years, and we look forward to his continued strong influence in the years ahead.

Additionally, at the beginning of the last Masonic year, Ms. Kay Letterman was selected to become the new Supreme Deputy of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls. Kay's mother, Katherine Ferguson, once served in this same capacity and we know that Kay's charming and engaging manner will be a real plus as the Order of Rainbow continues its push to reach more and more teenage girls across our state.

The North Carolina Bethels of Job's Daughters have joined into a two-state jurisdiction with South Carolina. While there have only been three active bethels in our state, the Order seems to be surging forward with activities, and joining with South Carolina seems to be a very positive move. Miss Emilie Deans, a past Honored Queen from Raleigh Bethel No. 2, was selected as Jurisdictional Honored Queen for the Carolinas.

Membership levels in our youth organizations, like those in other Masonic bodies, go through ups and downs. During the past year, the Order of DeMolay was only able to meet 27% of its membership goals. This is somewhat a reflection of past success, as for the last several years North Carolina was one of the most successful states in meeting its goals. As a result, the goal for this year was a very high one which simply could not be attained. While three chapters were unfortunately lost, there does seem to be activity towards opening new chapters in some areas that either previously have not had one or where chapters have been dormant. We continue to have three extremely active chapters in Jacksonville, Salisbury, and Raleigh.

Overall, our youth organizations continue to be as active and successful, if not more so, than in most other states. Obviously, this is in great measure due to the strong leadership that we have enjoyed for quite some time, but it is of paramount importance that we continue to develop members of our lodges who can serve as advisors and guides to these young people. In fact, the most frequent factor in the failure of one of our DeMolay chapters, or Rainbow Assemblies, or Job's Daughters Bethels, is the lack of adult leadership and sponsorship. We would like to encourage more lodge members to attend meetings of our youth organizations and take the time to give the support that is so needed. These young people will reward us with a warmth and friendship that is hard to find anywhere else. And since such a high proportion of them go on to become members in our adult Masonic bodies, we should remember that they, indeed, are the very future of Masonry itself.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM B. BRUNK, P.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MASONIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

(Docket No. 28)

The following Report of The North Carolina Masonic Development Program was received, entered on the record and referred to the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Development Office in the Grand Lodge opened its doors on July 1, 1994. From July through December in 1994, it was necessary to develop a plan and begin an official Development Program within our jurisdiction, and, within the first three months I submitted a 5-Year Plan to the Board of General Purposes. Annually the Plan would be reviewed and adjusted, or fine tuned, whatever the case may necessitate, and implemented annually.

I was first given direction through the Board of General Purposes:

A. Plan and direct fund raising efforts of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. which supports the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and the Masonic Home for Children at Oxford.

B. Plan a contribution program for Masons, non-Masons and other major gift prospects through expert communications and a variety of creative activities and programs.

C. Work with 388 Masonic lodges in North Carolina to coordinate Foundation fund raising in each lodge.

D. Plan an accounting system to receive and coordinate continuous giving.

E. Direct follow-up efforts in fund raising.

F. Prepare articles for The North Carolina Mason and other publications.

G. Prepare printed material for distribution to the membership and other prospects.

H. Within the first six months of employment, produce and submit to the Board of General Purposes a five-year plan for giving which establishes goals and milestones. When approved, this five-year plan will be reviewed and updated annually. This Development Office will be selfsustaining within two years.

The emphasis of the Development Office in 1995 was threefold: (1) assisting lodges in their solicitation of members for our North Carolina Charities; (2) identifying key prospects for major or legacy gifts, and assisting them accordingly; and (3) assisting our charities, our members and families with the necessary tools of estate planning to accomplish planned gifts for our Homes and the Foundation.

1995 finished with $1,236,534.33 of annual contributions from our Lodges: $674,644.36 received for the Masonic Home for Children at Oxford, 10.2% increase over 1994; $406,765.99 received for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, basically flat growth. The Care Center Fund at Greensboro reflected an increase of approximately 1.0 % over 1994. The North Carolina Masonic Foundation reflected a 27.1 % increase over 1994. Total annual receipts for these designated areas, $1,236,534.33 (1995) vs. $1,151,059.35 (1994) for an overall 7.4% increase.

Legacy gifts:

Masonic Home for Children at Oxford	$ 446,403.75
Masonic and Eastern Star Home	136,161.57
N. C. Masonic Foundation, Inc.	$ 250,645.12
Total Legacy Gifts for 1995	$ 833,210.44

Charitable Remainder Unity Trusts (CRUTs):

Masonic Home for Children at Oxford	$2,000,000.00
N. C. Masonic Foundation, Inc.	$ 250,000.00

1996 was another good year for Development Programs and Activities. The total annual support to the North Carolina charities was $1,349,549.58, 9.14% increase over 1995. More specifically, The Masonic Home for Children at Oxford received $707,089.42, an increase of 4.81% over 1995; The Masonic and Eastern Star Home received $437,399.53, an increase of 7.53% over 1995; MESH Care Center received $73,158.75 for a 63.74% increase over 1995; and, the North Carolina Masonic Foundation received $131,901.88, an increase of 19.43%.

Legacy gifts:

	1995	1996
Masonic Home for Children at Oxford	$446,403.75	$354,452.31
Masonic and Eastern Star Home	136,161.57	$117,910.56
N. C. Masonic Foundation, Inc.	$250,645.12	$355,000.00
Total Legacy Gifts for 1995	$833,210.44	$827,362.87

Regarding Charitable Remainder Unity Trusts, in 1995 two major CRUTs were established for our charities. In 1996, three were designed and are presently under construction. Two are awaiting the sale of highly appreciated property and one was finalized in March of this year. These three CRUTs could add in excess of an additional $3,000,000 in remainder assets to our charities.

Additionally, in 1996 a training program was instituted in 38 different locations across the state. A training manual was given to each lodge in attendance with instruction in key fund raising efforts. Secondly, a major effort in Planned Giving was initiated. And thirdly, a mainstay effort remains to search for candidates who wish to leave charitable remainder assets to our charities. This will be accomplished through the brethren, OES, and family members who wish to learn more about charitable gifting.

For 1996, there were three major parts of the annual program lending itself measurable and key for the goodness and livelihood of our North Carolina Masonic Charities: annual contributions coming from the individual lodges supporting our charities, the growth of legacies gifts, and the growth of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation.

In summary, the Development Programs and Activities has incrementally, since July of 1994 through December 31, 1996, increased the Annual Fund by $198,500; Legacy Gifts have increased our endowment assets by $1,660,573; CRUTs have increased by $3,000,000; and, the North Carolina Masonic Foundation increased annual contributions by $46,691 and just recently moved the asset fund balance over $10,000,000.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON GRAND LODGE INFORMATION SYSTEMS

(Docket No. 29)

The following report of the Committee on Grand Lodge Information Systems was received, entered on the record and referred to the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

M. W. William H. Simpson appointed the Committee on Grand Lodge Information Systems (GLIS) on July 12, 1996, as an advisory and resource committee to aid the Grand Lodge and the subordinate lodges to better utilize the rapid changing field of information technology. The appointees were Brothers: Eddie H. Moody, Chairman; T. Walton Clapp, Grand Secretary; and Joseph K. Transou.

The Committee has met four (4) times since its appointment and has been in frequent communication with each other by telephone and E-mail. All meetings have had minutes recorded and placed in Grand Lodge records. Our first task was to review the status of existing hardware and software systems and where any planned implementations stood. After this review, goals were set and prioritized; and action items were assigned to each GLIS member.

The establishing a Web Site on the World Wide Web received the highest priority since it has the greatest potential benefit to improve operations and communications within the Grand Lodge jurisdiction as well as inform non-Masons about us. The objectives for the grandlodge-nc.org are listed in the following outline:

A. Communicate Freemasonry to non-Masons on the World Wide Web, educating them as to who we are, our history, and information on how to join;

B. Provide Grand Lodge administration functions consisting of a Combined Calendar of events, Grand Master's Calendar, Masonic Directory, R&D Speaker Bureau papers, archive of N. C. Mason, Secretary Newsletters;

C. The Domain Name is : grandlodge-nc.org for E-mail service with the web page: <http://www.grandlodge-nc.org>;

D. The Grand Lodge, Masonic and Eastern Star Home, and Masonic Home for Children will be linked for real-time E-mail and binary attachment exchange with private network data exchange features—scheduled for May 1, 1997; and

E. Host Blue Lodges and Appendant Bodies will be allowed to put up web pages (without internal E-mail) for a fee of $120 and $240 respective annually. These fees will be very cost saving to all who wish to utilize this type of communication and advertising.

The webservice provider will be Cybersystems (www.shopthenet.net) of Greensboro, NC, and the webmaster will be Ric Carter.

The budget for these expenses has been included in the Board of Publications' budget for 1997. This is where they belong since this is only an inter-active publication.

The work for this committee has barely started. The website is not a reality yet, and it still has much work to be done to it to make it a useful tool of pride. Also, we have not addressed other goals, such as improving the exchange of information between the Blue Lodge and Grand Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,
EDDIE H. MOODY, JR, Chairman

M. .W. .Brother William H. Simpson, Grand Master called the Grand Lodge meeting to order at 1:30 P.M. on Tuesday, April 15, 1997.

M. .W. .William B. Brunk, Past Grand Master, introduced the speakers from the Youth Organizations. Representating Job's Daughters was Miss Job's Daughters of the Carolinas 1997, Miss Heather G. Mallard who delivered the following address:

Most Worship Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, dignified guests, and Master Masons:

Good afternoon. My name is Heather Mallard and I am a sophomore at N. C. State University. I am also Miss Job's Daughters of the Carolinas, the Jurisdictional Senior Princess, and the Honored Queen of Bethel No. 2 here in Raleigh. It is a great honor for me to be here today to tell you a little bit about Job's Daughters.

To start out, I'd like to give you an overview of Job's Daughters and who we are. We are your daughters, your granddaughters, your stepdaughters, and your nieces. We are between the ages of eleven and twenty. We are also the only international youth organization with our own philanthropic project. Just as all Shriners work for the Shriners' Hospitals, Job's Daughters all over the world work for the HIKE fund. HIKE stands for Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment Fund. Our lessons to young women are based on the book of Job in the Bible. We teach that just as Job's patience and faith in God got him through many trials, so will our patience and faith see us through any troubles we may encounter. If we remain true to ourselves and our God, in the end we will all be rewarded. We read in the book of Job that "in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job." As members of Job's Daughters, we strive to live up to this passage every day and to show others that we truly are "the fairest in all the land." These are the lessons we teach young women in their initiation and reinforce in our meetings.

However, there are other things that Job's Daughters teaches us without us even realizing that we are learning. These are the most invaluable lessons we will ever learn; such as reverence for God, loyalty to our Country, respect for our elders, and most importantly, love and friendship for each other. Just as all Masons are brothers, I am proud to call all members of Job's Daughters my sisters. They are also my motivation, my inspiration, my support, and my friends.

Our presiding officer is called our Honored Queen. Next in line is the Senior Princess followed by the Junior Princess. These royalty officers sit in the east. Our meeting places are called Bethels, which means "holy place." In every meeting we say a prayer asking God to bless and watch over our Master Masons who give us our heritage." This is because without Masonry, Job's Daughters would not exist.

Here in the Carolinas, North and South Carolina Job's Daughters have just recently joined together to create a jurisdiction. This is a very exciting time for us. We are growing every day and going further than our sisters before us. This summer, we have several young women going to Supreme Session in Utah. I will have the honor of representing the Carolinas in the Miss International Job's Daughters competition. When I joined Job's Daughters nine years ago, that was just a dream for me. However, Job's Daughters has raised me from an average, insecure eleven year old girl to a confident and motivated woman. I am eagerly awaiting my dream come true this summer in Salt Lake City.

So, what does all this mean to Masons in North Carolina? First of all, a happy Masonic Family makes for a happy Mason. Secondly, think of how much Masonry had done for you as an adult and how much Masonry means to you personally. Now think of how nice it would be to share those sentiments with a young woman special to you. We have the opportunity to shape and mold who she will become; and you as a Mason, a father, a grandfather, or an uncle could play a vital role in her transition into womanhood. Once young women see how much we gain from belonging to such an organization as Job's Daughters, we want to continue in the Masonic Family. This means that after age twenty, we must look elsewhere for guidance, support and companionship. The places we turn are adult Masonic Organizations like the Eastern Star, the Order of Armaranth, and the White Shrine. I am also a proud member of the Eastern Star, Milbrook Chapter No. 293. Job's Daughters serves as a stepping stone into these organizations.

Job's Daughters has done so much for so many, and is looking to do so much for so many more. We appreciate all of your support and offer our support in return. In North Carolina we have three Bethels and one in south Carolina. This means that there is a lot of space to start new Bethels in the Carolinas. Job's Daughters is a wonderful experience and becomes not only an extracurricular activity, but a way of life. We can help girls who are beginning to blossom, who have strayed from the straight and narrow, and who have walked the right path all along. There are laughs to share, friends to make, and sisters to gain. Job's Daughters is the best thing a young woman can do to help her in the future. I personally invite each and every one of you to find out for yourself exactly what Job's Daughters is all about.

Our Raleigh Bethel is hosting a Masonic, Eastern Star, and Parents Appreciation Night on April 26 at three o'clock in the Raleigh Masonic Lodge auditorium. If you have any questions about Job's Daughters, know of any young women between the ages of eleven and twenty with Masonic heritage, are interest in starting a Bethel in your area, or if you just want to chat, please come and talk to me today at the Masonic Youth table outside. Thank you very much for your time and God speed to you all!

Mrs. Kay F. Letterman, Supreme Deputy in North Carolina, International Order of Rainbow for Girls presented the following introduction:

It is indeed an honor and a privilege to be asked to speak before the Grand Lodge of North Carolina on behalf of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls. As a daughter and wife of a Master Mason, this outstanding organization has always been very dear to my heart.

This past year, Rainbow has begun to take a turn to strengthen our membership. This has been through the hard work of Masons, Eastern Stars and Rainbow Girls working together. May I remind you that this youth organization is for young ladies between the ages of 11 and 20 years of age. As I look out across this Grand Lodge, I see many Masons whose wives and daughters have been Rainbow Girls. Still Rainbow needs your help and support to increase our membership. If you have a daughter, granddaughter, niece, or know of a young lady in this age category, please encourage her to become a member. We are now forming a new assembly in Raleigh. If you know of a girl who may be interested, I will be glad to talk with her.

At this time, we are in the processing of reorganizing three assemblies in the state. If there has been an assembly in your city that has closed and you would like to see it reinstated, or if you are interested in starting an assembly in your city, please feel free to contact me.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, William H. Simpson, it has been a privilege, as my first year as Supreme Deputy, to work with you. You have always been a strong supporter and true friend of the Rainbow Girls, and we appreciate all the help you have given us this past year. I look forward to the coming year working with Right Worshipful Gerry T. Smith when he assumes his new office this week.

Today I have the honor to bring to this Grand Lodge a lovely young lady, who for the past year has served the great state of North Carolina with poise and dignity. She is a member of Spring Lake Assembly No. 62, and her father is a former DeMolay and a member of Fort Bragg Lodge No. 667. Her warm, friendly smile and outgoing, jovial personality certainly reflects a true Rainbow Girl. She is a credit to our beautiful Order, and we are proud to call her our own. I now present to you, Miss Kamin Marie Wilkie, Grand Worthy Advisor of the Grand Assembly of North Carolina, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

Representing International Order of Rainbow for Girls was Miss Kamin Wilkie, Grand Worthy Advisor in North Carolina who delivered the following address:

The International Order of Rainbow for girls was established in 1922 and it has therefore, experienced many years of growth and development. Hi, my name is Kamin Wilkie, and I'm the Grand Worthy Advisor of North Carolina. I want to share with you the values of Rainbows. Sometimes, when we identify ourselves with an Organization, in our more selfish moods we ask, "What will we get out of it?" This seems a fair question for if we spend our time, our talent, and our money, it is perfectly natural for us to want to know what the returns will be. Well in Rainbows your returns or should I say rewards will be both material and spiritual. Each girl may begin their career when she is 11 and may continue her inspirational travels until they are 20. To know that these girls are in a group that is well chaperoned, and that the form of entertainment in which they engage is clean and wholesome, should be very consoling to the parents of these girls. In the Rainbow Assembly she will have an opportunity to learn to talk in front of groups. She will be in meetings presided over by girls, and while the meeting will be under the direction of an adult, the adult will be in the background. Each girl has a feeling of freedom, a feeling that she is constantly learning about religion and the love of God to his children. If she is fortunate enough to pass through the various stations, she may become the Worthy Advisor of her Assembly. As Worthy Advisor, she will receive a training that will be worth more to her than any other she can possibly receive so early in life.

As an officer, she will not only preside over the particular work assigned to her, but she will work and plan to make a program that will be beneficial to the entire membership. Thus, early in life, she will become a planner and in carrying out these plans which has helped to make, she will learn to become a director.

When a young lady enters Rainbow and is a faithful worker, she has an opportunity of having her services recognized by being made a Master of the Grand Cross of Color. This is an honorary degree that is conferred upon Rainbow girls in recognition of services rendered. Only those rendering outstanding services receive this distinct honor.

Most assemblies have two regular meetings each month. In the Assembly room, she will find a great group of girls that will become her friends and spiritual sisters. An Assembly room is a beautiful place for, as a rule, girls like to surround themselves with things that are attractive. The floor setting of an Assembly is always interesting and invites immediate attention. The more you see it and study it the more interesting it becomes. It is in this environment that the Rainbow girl hears over and over about the power of the colors in her life and what the Rainbow means to her. Events like this leave their everlasting impression of peace and tranquility, on each and every member. And yet, this is only a few of the hours that are truly worthwhile in the experience of the Rainbow Girl.

These are only a few of the outstanding advantages that will come when a girl joins this program. The finest lessons are those of the bow stations represented by Love, Religion, Nature, Immortality, Fidelity, Patriotism, and Service. They teach each young girl how to use her faith as her guiding light throughout life.

It was brought to my attention that some Masons did not know that they were in fact a sponsoring body of Rainbow. Well surprise! You are! Your involvement with the youth does not stop with the DeMolay, it continues with us. I hope that I have given you a little more understanding of Rainbow for we need your support. Our order was founded by a great Mason, Mark W. Sexton. And hopefully, with your help, we can continue his work. Rainbow is growing again in North Carolina and will continue to grow with your support.

I would like to invite you to North Carolina's 60th Grand Assembly, Memories of Rainbow Love And Friendship Session, June 22, 23, and 24. I would love to have each and every one of you there. This will give you an opportunity to see up close the effect that Rainbow has on each girl. For Masons, Eastern Star, Amranth, and Rainbow are separate bodies, but working together we are a family!!! Thank you for having me and I hope to see all of you very soon.

Brother E. John Elmore, Grand Master of DeMolay International, State Executive Officer for DeMolay introduced Mr. Jason L. Whitley, State Master Councilor, Order of DeMolay who delivered the following address:

Most Worshipful Grand Master Simpson, Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master Smith, Grand Master of the International Order of DeMolay Dad Elmore, Grand Lodge Officers, and members, good afternoon. It is indeed an honor to have the opportunity to stand here and speak before such a distinguished group of Masons. Dad Simpson, I would like to thank you for the invitation to the banquet last night, and the opportunity to meet so many honorable individuals.

The North Carolina Association Order of DeMolay is on the move. Since the last time you met at Grand Lodge, we have begun the process of starting a brand new chapter in Burlington, and also reopening an old chapter in Winston-Salem. I know that this does not sound like much, but for an organization of our size it is the greatest thing ever.

The relationship of DeMolay and Masonry grows stronger and stronger each day. If it wasn't for the men sitting in this room right now, DeMolay would not exist. It is the hard work, dedication, and contributions, that you provide that allows our young men to fulfill their dreams.

To fulfill a dream, those are some very powerful words. DeMolay has allowed so many young men to accomplish things that they would never think possible. For a young man to join a fraternal body, that would allow him to make choices of his own and direct his life to the fullest measure, would be a dream to live. DeMolay stresses morals, lessons, and examples, to young men, in hopes that they will follow them. Just as you believe, Masonry will take a good man and make him a better man. Same as in DeMolay, we take young men out of today's world, present them with those morals, lessons, and examples, so that when he is of age, he will be prepared to be that better man. DeMolay gives a young man an opportunity to meet new people, develop new friends, experience a fraternal brotherhood, learn leadership skills, advance in his scholastic studies, travel, and just plainly have fun. DeMolay is that dream, whether you are rich or poor, 12 years old or 21 years old. DeMolay is the one and only place where everyone is on the same level, and can experience and enjoy the same things.

Thinking back as a child, growing up I spent a great deal of time at my grandparents house. Seeing the way that my grandfather lived his life, as a Mason, built my excitement to follow his path. He was always honest, fair, and a good friend. What he would do to help someone, or the time he would give to his lodge. He dedicated himself to his Masonic beliefs. Some of you know him as Morris Whitley of Guilford Lodge No. 656, a Past Master of his lodge and a Certified Lecturer for the last 45 years. He has been my stepping stone, and he is responsible for introducing me into the world of DeMolay. My grandfather, the man who started my dream. A dream of belonging to a fraternal body, to show his good faith, to advance in leadership within his chapter. The dream of standing here before you today. This year I am accomplishing something I never thought possible. This is the most magnificent thing I have ever done. DeMolay has made me, and DeMolay has prepared me to be that better man. Exactly one year and eight days from today, I will be ready to make that new journey into Masonry. That will complete my dream from my childhood, and open up a whole new door for my adulthood.

My brothers dreams do come true, and I encourage each everyone of you to be responsible, for giving a young man between the ages of 12 and 21 the opportunity to fulfill theirs. DeMolay is the best place to start.

One year from now, I will most likely be a Past State Master Councilor, and of course that means I will not be speaking here before you. I hope that the young man who is standing here next year in front of this distinguished group of men, will share his experiences in DeMolay. Grant some of them will be different, but certain things will not. You see all DeMolays share things that are in common just like you and your brethren. DeMolay has the positive effects on one's life such as the new friendship, the brotherhood, and its values. DeMolay is so important to a young man, and it can make all the difference. I that it has for me.

It has indeed been an honor and a privilege to be able to speak here today. Grand Master Simpson, thank you for allowing me the opportunity to be here, and congratulations on a job well done. Deputy Grand Master Smith, I look forward to working with you during the upcoming year, I am sure that it will be a pleasure. Thank you all very much for your time and attention, and God bless.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No. 32)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was presented by W. .Brother David R. Grissom, Chairman, and was entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Over the years, all of us have seen the letters V.I.P. and we know they mean Very Important Person.

Today let us remember with respect and dignity those who have passed from our midst and entered that "House Not Made With Hands Eternal in the Heavens."

Those who have died since our last Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, could be listed as Masons who are V.I.B. or Very Important Brethren.

To be listed as someone important means that person has been actively involved maybe in many phases of community life, been a leader on the state level or recognized by his peers as making a meaningful contribution for service rendered.

A V.I.B. could be a Brother who helps a neighbor, calls on someone who is shut-in, transports a person in the community to the doctor, or writes a note to someone to let them know they are remembered, or picks up a Brother and takes him to a lodge meeting.

As we remember our departed brethren today, there are 1,473 Very Important Brethren who could be called by name as each of them are special.

Whether we know them personally or not, they were in God's eyes, and in our hearts, Our Brothers. They knelt at the sacred altar and obligated to be the best Mason they could be, and for those who had the privilege of crossing paths with these friends, you know the kind of men and Masons they were.

Fortunately, these V.I.B.'s have left us a strong heritage on which to build and for the wonderful examples they gave us, we will always be grateful.

There are two brethren among our list of Very Important Brethren who gave a great deal to Freemasonry for many years, and touched so many lives across our State with their leadership and contributions.

We will ask two of our brethren to present their remarks and thoughts.

We call upon Past Grand Master, A. C. "Jack" Honeycutt who will present a tribute to Past Grand Master, William Bernhard Bellois, followed by Deputy Grand Master, Gerry Smith, who will present a tribute to Grand Secretary, Robert "Pete" Dudley.

ROBERT PETE DUDLEYGrand Secretary 1974-1996*

Born: October 23, 1928 Died: October 3, 1996

ROBERT PETE DUDLEY

Eulogy delivered by R. W. Gerry T. Smith, Deputy Grand Master

"And what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God" Micah 6:8. "Live so that when you are gone, it will have mattered that you were here." These were Robert "Pete" Dudley's favorite quotations. His favorite hymn was "He Leadeth Me." These words certainly fit him and he lived the words square and true.

Pete was born October 23, 1928, in Shelby, North Carolina, the third of five children born to John and May Belle Dudley. He graduated from Shelby High School and attended Garner-Webb College and the Shelby School of Business. He grew up in the family business of heating, air conditioning, and plumbing. He later became a partner in the business with his older brother and father. He was a member of the National Refrigeration Service Engineer Society and several civic clubs in Shelby.

In August 1950, he volunteered to serve his country by joining the U. S. Army Engineers, spending two and a half years in Japan during the Korean conflict.

He started serving God at the age of twelve when he became a Christian and joined the First Baptist Church of Shelby. When the family moved to Raleigh, he transferred his membership to Forest Hills Baptist Church. He served both churches in leadership positions and various committees. He liked to say he attended church all his life starting even nine months before he was born.

Pete also joined the Masonic fraternity at a young age. When he was twenty-one, he was initiated on May 11, 1950, passed May 29, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason June 15, 1950. June 15 had a very special significance to Pete, not only was he raised on that date, it also is the date of his beloved wife Doris's birthday and coincidentally my birthday also! He served his Mother Lodge, Cleveland No. 202 as Master, in 1959. He was D.D.G.M. of the 43rd Masonic District in 1960-1961 and part of 1962 when he became the unanimous choice of a special Grand Lodge committee to become assistant to the Grand Secretary Charles A. Harris, P.G.M. This committee worked for 22 months interviewing dozens of applicants without finding a suitable person. Brother Charlie told Grand Master James Brewer he knew a young man from Shelby that would be the right man if he would take the job. After contact was made with Pete, he and Doris made the decision, after much prayerful consideration, to accept the offer. That was the best thing that could ever have happened to this fraternity. This man was destined for this; his life's vocation. Thus began a dedicated, fruitful commitment to perpetuate the brotherhood, its purposes, beliefs, tenets, fraternal benevolence, and good will.

He was appointed by Grand Master William L. Mills, Jr., in October 1974 and was elected Grand Secretary in April 1975. He served in this capacity for twenty-two years, retiring September 30, 1996, just three days before his death. In 1970, he received the Joseph Montfort Medal from Grand Master William A. Hooks. In 1975, he was coroneted a 33rd Mason by the Scottish Rite. In 1980, he was appointed Grand Representative to Great Britain by the Duke of Kent. In 1986, he was awarded the DeMolay Cross of Honor by the International Supreme Order of DeMolays. In 1992, he was one of seven Grand Secretaries invited to share in the 275th anniversary celebration of the Grand Lodge of England.

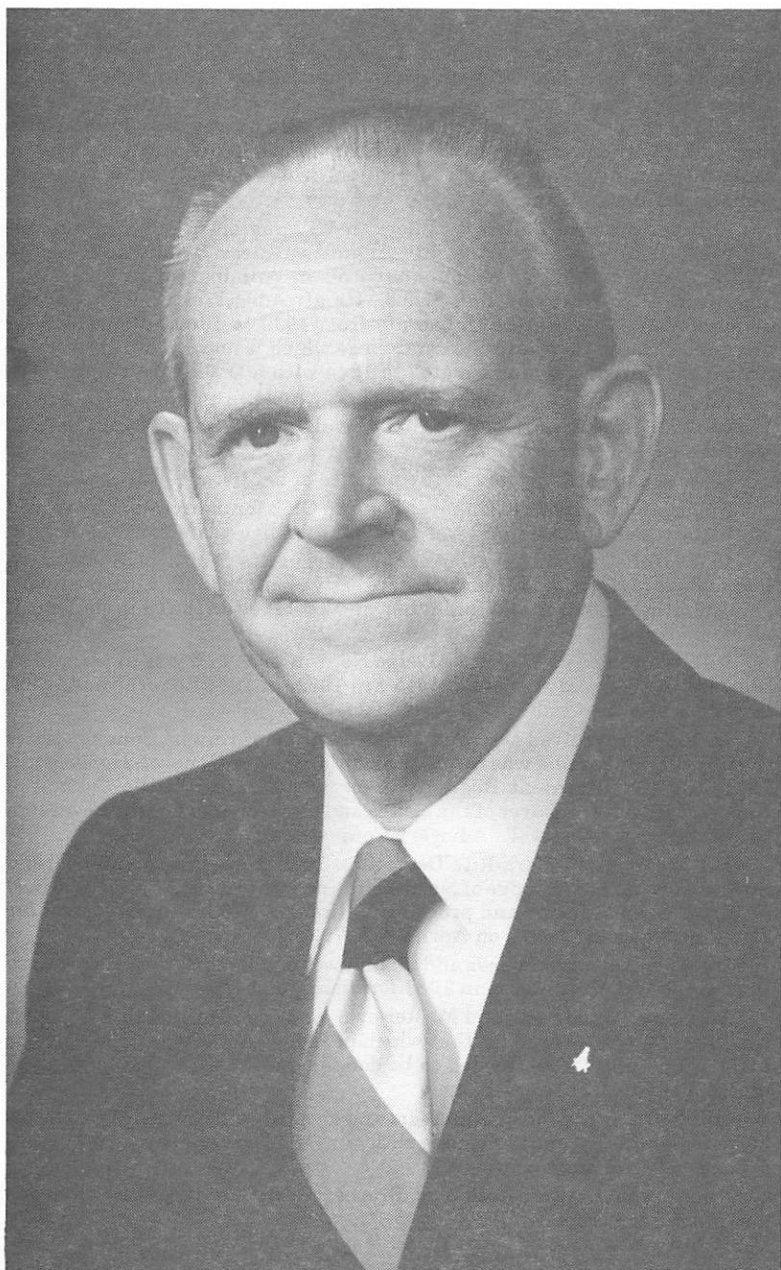

In 1993, he was elected and served as President of the Grand Secretaries Conference of North America. In 1996, he was honored by having two windows dedicated to him at the George Washington Masonic Memorial in Arlington, Virginia. One was from his long time friends, the family of Jerry G. Tart, P.G.M., and the other from his Masonic friends. He was a member of the Charlotte Bodies of the Scottish Rite, York Rite Bodies of Raleigh, Oasis, Sudan, and Amran Shrine Temples, and/or Honorary member of twenty-two lodges, several out of state jurisdictions and many other Masonic appendant bodies.

There is an old saying we have all heard many times, "Behind every good man, is a good woman." This is an absolute fact and certainly was true of Brother Pete. In September 1953, he married the true love of his life, Doris Rucker Dudley whom he affectionately called "Luce." Pete accomplished a lot in his life, but if he were standing here with me now he could honestly say much of it would not have been possible without this lovely lady. Doris fulfilled the role every man seeks in a wife. They enjoyed forty-three years of marital bliss and from this union came three children: Kathryn Dudley Griffith, R. P. Dudley, Jr., better known as "Bo," and Henry Rucker Dudley. His son-in-law is John Griffith and daughter-in-law is Wanda Davis Dudley. He had three grandsons: Logan and Spencer Griffith, and another special love of his life, Phillip Alan Stevens. Pete was a family man, he loved and cherished his entire family. He was the true "Father Figure" they looked up to for wisdom and kindness.

On a personal note, I can thank my dear departed Brother Earl Noe for introducing me to this great man. Pete and Doris were visiting the coast for a few days of rest and relaxation. Earl knew it was Doris's birthday, so he planned a little party for her. He invited Becky and myself and I was a little reluctant to go because I am a shy person and that word "Grand" scared me. I had seen Pete at Grand Lodge sitting on the stage performing his job flawlessly, sneaking behind the curtain for a smoke, walking around in his socks, but still he was a "Grand" Lodge officer. I guess I had it set in my mind that made them elite. We went to the party and I got the surprise of my life. Pete Dudley, I soon learned, was a genuine down to earth person. The word "Grand" took on a new meaning to me because he became a Grand friend to me. My family became his family and vice versa. We had a golden relationship that cannot be bought with paltry gold. Many of you here today have a favorite story of Pete, how he touched you in a special way, how he went out of his way for you, and he walked that extra mile for you. We truly thank Almighty God in heaven for letting us have Pete Dudley, he gave us so much and we gave him so little. This man had the most difficult job in North Carolina. Can you imagine having to cater to a new "boss" every year plus trying to satisfy 70,000 other bosses daily? He did it, he did it very well, and we received the fruits of his labor.

In closing, "Pete," I want to say to you my dear Brother—we can't see you up there on the stage and we don't see the smoke wafting from behind the curtain, but we know you are here among us. Your memory here will live on for many generations. I implore the young men in our beloved fraternity to carry forward the legacy this man has given us. Old friend, your buddies at the fish house miss you, but we know you are in a much better place. You have many of your old friends there with you now so until we meet again, "farewell," we love you.

WILLIAM BERNHARD BELLOIS

Grand Master 1979

Born: June 22, 1920 Died: June 20, 1996

WILLIAM BERNHARD BELLOIS

The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina has been blessed with exceptional leadership as men from all walks of life, have served with distinction as Grand Master and have brought to the office many and varied talents with a strong resolve and firm dedication to the principles of Free masonry. Each in his own way brought to the office some unique quality and the one whose memory we honor today was indeed such a man.

William Bernard Bellois was born in Wilmington, North Carolina on June 22, 1920, the son of the late Annie Lea Pless Bellois and George William Bellois. He attended public schools in Wilmington, graduating in 1937 from New Hanover High School. He attended Wake Forest College which now is Wake Forest University from 1939 to 1940, after which he attended Atlanta Southern Dental College which is now Emory University School of Dentistry, and graduated in 1944 with a D.D.S. Degree.

He served in the U. S. Dental Corps from 1944 to 1946 and again from 1952 to 1954. He retired from the U. S. Naval Reserve Dental Corps in 1963 with the rank of commander.

He was actively engaged in the practice of dentistry for fifty years.

Being a member of the Hanover Seaside Club for many years he served on the board of directors and was president for five years.

In 1944 he married the former A. Marguerite Smith of Hookstown, Pennsylvania. He and Marguerite were active members of St. Paul's Evangelical Luthern Church of Wilmington, and he served on the Church Council about four years.

Bill was raised in St. John's Lodge No. 1 in 1954 and was appointed as Steward in 1955 and served as Master in 1962. In 1954 he received the 32° in Wilmington Scottish Rite Bodies.

In 1963 he received the rank and decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor and was coroneted a 33° Inspector General, Honorary in 1971. He was an ardent Degree Worker and Director of the Council of Kadosh. He was Treasurer of the bodies and was a member of the Sovereign Grand Inspector General's Advisory Conference.

Bill received the York Rite Degrees in 1972. He was appointed Grand Steward of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in April 1972 by M. 'W.' Berl M. Kahn Grand Master and progressed through the Grand lines until his election as Grand Master on April 18, 1979.

He served on many boards and committees during this time. He received the Joseph Montfort Medal in 1981 for distinguished service.

When he served as Grand Master everyone soon learned that he never hesitated to take a stand for that which he believed was right, and once he had decided upon what needed to be done he was there to see that it was accomplished.

Bill had a great sense of humor, and seemed to like teasing. I always looked forward to seeing and being with him, and I will not say good-bye, but so long until we meet again.

Thank you Brother Jack and Brother Gerry for your thoughts and meaningful remarks.

Around this altar, with the burning candles and beautiful flowers, we cherish their memories and hold their friendship near to our hearts.

But as we close this service, let us, who remain, open a new chapter in our own lives to be the best Mason we can be and hopefully one day someone will say of us, that Mason was among this list of Very Important Brethren and that ultimately God will say of us, "Well Done Thou Good and Faithful Servant."

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID R. GRISSOM, Chairman

WILLIAM H. SIMPSON
Grand Master Presiding

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

(Docket No. 33)

Most Worshipful Brother William H. Simpson, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes (See Page 113, Docket No. 34 of these Proceedings for distribution of this report.)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Brethren:

It is a special privilege for me to have this opportunity to welcome each of you to the Two Hundred and Tenth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina. It is a great honor, a great responsibility and a great challenge to be a Freemason in this time in which we live. Those of you Brethren who are here to represent your lodges as a delegate and thereby serve as a member of Grand Lodge bear an additional responsibility and are rewarded with added opportunities of service to God, Humanity, and to Freemasonry.

We have come here to give an account of our time and actions for the last year. We have also come to formulate plans and make decisions which will affect the future of Freemasonry in North Carolina. I invite your participation in the business of your Grand Lodge and trust that decisions made here will be of mutual benefit to each of us.

On behalf of the Grand Lodge Officers and all the delegates, I extend to our out of state guests and those representing the appendant bodies of Freemasonry warm fraternal greetings and a most cordial welcome. We are delighted to have you here and trust your stay will be both pleasant and rewarding and you will be glad you came. It is our sincere desire to make your visit an enjoyable one.

Once again I extend a warm Brotherly welcome to each of you. I invite your participation and I request your careful, prayerful and deliberate consideration of all matters to come before this Grand Body.

In compliance with the provision of THE CODE of this Grand Lodge, I am required to make a report to you on my activities as Grand Master during the Masonic year 1996-1997. It has been a delightful and rewarding experience for me and while I could not accomplish everything I desired, go everywhere I wanted to go, nor please every member, you can be assured that every action I took and every decision I made was made in the interest of Freemasonry as I was given to see what was best, I am therefore happy to make the following report.

NECROLOGY

Once again the Grim Reaper has taken his toll among our Brethren. Since our last Annual Communication, 1,473 of our Brethren have been called to their eternal rest (figures will be shown in the 1997 Proceedings). Among those called were Most Worshipful William B. Bellois, PGM who served in 1979-80 and our former Grand Secretary, Right Worshipful Brother Robert P. Dudley. Brother Pete served in this office for 22 years in addition to having served as assistant to the Grand Secretary for ten years. He was a wealth of knowledge and a valuable servant of our Fraternity.

We are saddened by the loss of our Brethren. We extend to their families and friends our heartfelt sympathy and to our Heavenly Father our thanks for their contributions to each life they touched.

DDGM - DDGL MEETING

A dinner meeting was held with the District Deputy Grand Masters and District Deputy Grand Lecturers at the Radisson Hotel on Tuesday, April 16, 1996 during the Two Hundred and Ninth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge. At that meeting, I presented an outline of the topics I intended to focus on during the year to provide guidance to the District Deputies for their meetings.

I presented my theme for the year, "Freemasonry - A Challenge". My major points of emphasis were: morality, unity, leadership and education. In addition, other points of emphasis or continued emphasis were: DeMolay and other youth organizations, "Open House" programs, "Father and Son Nights", community involvement, improved communications and support of our charities.

In an effort to get the Deputies more directly involved with the lodges, reporting forms were prepared for reporting to the Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers and others for their review and assistance in monitoring lodge activities.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

A total of thirty-two district meetings were held across the state, the first on May 22 in Warrenton and the last in Black Mountain on August 28. Attendance at these meetings ranged from just over 40 to just under 180.

A delicious meal was served before each meeting. My thanks go to those who prepared the food, the lodges which served as host for the meeting and those who made the necessary arrangements. My gratitude also goes to the lodges for coming together and for the good fellowship that prevailed. I regret that some lodges were not represented at one of these meetings.

In an effort to shorten the meeting, the lodge was tiled, but was not opened, and the Grand Master was officially received. An overwhelming majority of you who have commented, have favored this procedure.

The format of the meetings was limited to introductions, report from the Grand Secretary, remarks by the Grand Master and a question and answer session. The meetings usually began by 7:15 p.m. and were concluded by 8:15 p.m. My theme for the year was "Freemasonry - A Challenge". My remarks were directed to the challenges presented to Freemasonry as well as those presented by Freemasonry.

I offer a special thank you to the Grand Lodge Officers and to the Past Grand Masters who attended one or more of the meetings. A special thanks also goes to Brethren from my lodge and the Greensboro area who attended several meetings and assisted me with the driving.

Holding these meetings was a very gratifying experience for me and I appreciate your hospitality and your reception.

BOARD OF CUSTODIANS

Under the leadership of M. W. Brother Bunn T. Phillips, Grand Lecturer and W. Brother H. V. Massengill, Chairman this Board constantly strives to see that the ritualistic work of our Fraternity is performed effectively, uniformly, and proficiently.

Changes in the requirements for lecture service and District Schools of Instruction were made in an effort to insure the objectives of the Board and to accommodate the Brethren. I trust that each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction will cooperate fully with these actions of this Board and these changes will prove beneficial.

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC CEREMONIES AND MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

There are a number of unsung contributors to our Masonic Fraternity. There are none more deserving of our thanks and appreciation than the members of this dedicated and hard working committee.

The program that these Brethren have developed, "Program for Progress" is truly a plan for the advancement of Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction. On behalf of every Freemason in this state, I extend our heartfelt gratitude for your efforts on our behalf. Brethren, the best way you can express your appreciation to Brothers James Vann, Boyd Hopkins, Richard Holshouser, Ed Lawing and Lloyd Wilkerson is to put this plan into action and let it work. It can be the beginning of a new day in Freemasonry in North Carolina.

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Committee on Masonic Research and Development planned and conducted sixteen seminars across the state. These seminars were held on four consecutive Saturdays, beginning on January 25 and concluding on February 15, 1997.

The topics were "Back to Basics" and "A Knock at the Door" which were presented by members of the Research and Development Committee and "Program for Progress" presented by members of the Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications Committee.

These Brethren are to be commended for their time, effort, patience, and perseverance in preparing and presenting these timely and important topics. I regret that there was not more interest and participation in some areas. I believe these are topics that are critical to us and the future of Freemasonry in North Carolina.

PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE

I am pleased to report progress in two areas of special interest by this committee.

Thanks to Brother Calvin Gaddy and this committee the license plate applications will be available in time for this Annual Communication.

Brother James Reddish has prepared several public announcements regarding Freemasonry for radio. These tapes are being distributed to area stations for their use.

Thanks to these Brethren for their work.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

The North Carolina Mason is recognized around the Masonic world as one of the better publications and awards continue to acknowledge that fact. Every Freemason in this state is indebted to Brother Ric Carter, Editor and the Board of Publications for this outstanding paper. Brother Carter is always ready to receive your items of interest for the paper.

SUBORDINATE LODGE ACTIVITIES AND DEVELOPMENT

On your behalf, I would express our appreciation to Brother Jim Medlin, Development Director for the effort he has extended and the programs he has either initiated or has planned for fund raising for our Foundation and our charities.

Our expression of gratitude also go to Brother Ed Becton and his Committee on Subordinate Lodge Activities for their time and energy in an effort to direct this program and especially to keep us informed regarding Internal Revenue laws and guidelines pertaining to fund raising.

PHYSICAL DISABILITIES

During the year, I was requested to approve waivers of physical disabilities for a number of petitioners for the degrees in Masonry. In each case, the District Deputy Grand Master of the District in which the petition was received, made a personal investigation of the petitioner and reported to me. I wish to commend each of them for the prompt and efficient manner in which they handled these investigations. Based upon the reports and recommendations received, I approved the waiver of physical disability for 16 petitioners. Unfortunately, it was necessary to deny one waiver.

DISPENSATIONS GRANTED

As the time this report was being prepared, I had granted thirty dispensations. These dispensations had been granted to accomplish the following purposes:

Nineteen dispensations were granted to elect officers and fill lodge vacancies created by death, resignation, or failure to elect in December.

Two dispensations were granted for visitation with subordinate lodges in other Grand Jurisdictions.

One dispensation was granted for out-of-state visitation in our subordinate lodge.

Six dispensations were granted to permit lodges to hold meetings other than at the regular meeting place.

Two dispensations were granted to permit lodges to re-ballot.

THE MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN AT OXFORD

The Masonic Home for Children at Oxford has provided unsurpassed quality care for deserving children for many years and continues in that proud tradition. At the same time, every effort is being made to improve the care, the facilities and the training at the Home and to do so in the most economical manner.

During the last year the beef operation was phased out due to the cost of the operation. The Board made the decision not to sell the property, which is now under a five-year lease. A lamb project was begun with the Granville County 4-H Club.

The Board allocated funds to develop a media and resource center with a library in the basement of the York Rite Memorial Chapel. This project is under development at the present time.

"Campus Tracks" is an outstanding publication prepared under the direction of Brother Mike Soehnlein. This is a tremendous information and communication tool and our goal is to get it into every lodge in North Carolina.

The Board adopted a policy not to sell any of the main campus property or any of the adjoining farm land consisting of approximately 350 acres.

The census at the home has numbered 130-135 for some time. It is not my desire to alarm you, but to alert you that this number could continue to decline and should this be the case, the cost of care per child will continue to increase. It is also my desire to inform you that we have the capacity to care for up to 200 children at our Home without appreciably increasing the overall cost of operating the Home. This would appreciably decrease the average cost of care per child. Brethren, this is one situation that can become critical and I urge your attention and your involvement. There are children needing our help and there are children we can help. Please assist us in finding them. On your behalf, I extend our thanks to the very dedicated staff and Board of Directors at the Home.

You are encouraged to visit the Home, see what your money is doing, visit with the children and participate in some of their activities with them.

MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

This has been an exciting and a dynamic year at our Masonic and Eastern Star Home. It has been a year of transition to a new administration and year of monumental decisions, decisions to implement a plan that will take us into the twenty-first century.

For more than a decade we have debated how to resolve our fiscal and service dilemma. Our Home was, and is, operating in the red. Our Care Center is old and inefficient. Donations have declined due to inaction. We are also challenged in that the number of members who will need the Home most will double in the next ten years at the same time membership is declining. This makes gifts to the Foundation and emphasis on wills, estates and legacies of paramount importance and means we must capitalize on any additional revenue sources to which the Home is entitled.

On February 7-9 the Board of Directors met in what we call "The Decade of Decision" meeting. At that meeting the following ten motions were unanimously adopted:

1. To construct a new one hundred bed Care and Wellness Center as described in the approved Certificate of Need application. Renovate the older Bass Care Center into additional studios and apartments where more efficient Assisted Living services can be provided. The total project may be pursued at a construction cost not to exceed $7.0 million.

2. To finance the approved project immediately through the Home's present and future resources.

3. To appoint Mr. David Polston of Wilmington, North Carolina, as principal architect of the authorized expansion plan for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Inc.

4. That, under direction of the Admission Committee, staff will develop a "Fee-for Service Program" for the Home's Admission Policies which permits admission of those qualified and eligible persons who are able to pay their full cost of care through entrance fee and/or regular monthly maintenance payments based upon specific required or desired services and to present that program to the Board of Directors for approval.

5. That an applicant, qualified and eligible for admission to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, may apply for temporary admission to the Home's Care and Wellness Center provided there is an admitting diagnosis by a Masonic and Eastern Star Home approved physician and the needs of that patient are such that they can be met in the Care and Wellness Center by the Masonic and Eastern Star Home staff within the scope of the center's licensure and certification.

6. That the Administrator be authorized to immediately apply for certification and reimbursement by third party payor to include Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance, SSI Assisted Living and Veteran's Administration.

7. To authorize a new "Care and Wellness Center Construction Fund" to account for and monitor construction in progress.

8. To adopt a construction calendar for construction which calls for the new Care and Wellness Center to be completed and operating by October 19, 1998.

9. To form an Ad-Hoc Marketing Committee to study marketing of the expansion of the Home's Independent Living program and the charitable program of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina.

10. Formation of an Ad-Hoc Construction Committee to monitor the construction of the Care Center and Assisted Living expansion program, approve specifications and building locations, approve change orders and construction payments, and investigate expansion of the Independent Living Program by an additional fifty cottages.

We are delighted with the knowledge and skills our administrator, Brother John Rose brought with him and the leadership he is providing. We are also pleased with the new Director of Business Service, Brother William H. Hurlbert. These two have worked long and hard to better understand the expenses and revenue source of the Home. They have discovered overlooked revenue for the current and prior years. These are not recurring assets, however, their disclosure resulted in the necessity of restating the 1995 audit. As a result, rather than a deficit condition in 1995 and 1996, the Home actually finished with a positive bottom line which will carry over into the 1997 fiscal year.

Several other staff positions have been filled this year including that of Assistant Administrator. These additions, which compliment an already loyal and skillful core staff gives us reason for an optimistic view of the future.

This year, for the first time in the history of the Home, we had an Eastern Star sister serve as President and another sister serve as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

Several major improvements have been completed such as renovations and landscaping at the independent living apartments and cable T.V.

We now look forward with great anticipation to a ground breaking ceremony for the new care center and the completion of the expansion plan as specified by the Certificate of Need.

This was my second Conference of Grand Masters and I am grateful for the opportunity to represent our Grand Jurisdiction. I have found both conferences that I have attended to be very informative and interesting and not always as harmonious as you might expect. That feature alone, makes them even more worthwhile. Of note also, is this was Most Worshipful Brother Brewer's 50th Conference. I recommend our continued participation.

The 1998 Conference will be held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

SOUTHEASTERN MASONIC CONFERENCE

The thirty-sixth Annual Southeastern Masonic Conference, was held in Nashville, Tennessee on August 1-3, 1996. Those in attendance and representing the Grand Jurisdiction of North Carolina were: M. W. William H. Simpson, Grand Master and his wife Marian; M. W. Clifton W. Everett, Jr., Past Grand Master and Grand Treasurer; and W. T. Walton Clapp, Assistant to the Grand Secretary.

M. W. J. D. Tisdale, Past Grand Master of Tennessee served as Master of Ceremonies for the conference. After the invocation by Rev. Donald Brooks, Grand Chaplain of Tennessee and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States, the Grand Master of Masons for the State of Tennessee M. W. Brother Alton E. Tollison was introduced. Brother Tollison welcomed all present. His welcome was followed by Brother Charlie Walker, Grand Ole Opry, who welcomed all present to Nashville and Opryland. Following the introduction of delegates and officers of each Grand Lodge the keynote address was given by Illustrious Joseph Martin, Jr., S.G.I.G. in Tennessee.

Papers were presented as follows:

"Let's talk about Freemasonry" - R. W. Jerry Underwood, JGW of Alabama

"How can we regain the respect we lost as a Fraternity" - M. W. L. C. Harper, Grand Master of Kentucky

"Are we getting needed support from the Appendant Bodies?" - R. W. Ray B. Tuck, Deputy Grand Master of Louisiana

"Results of One Day Class" - M. W. Michael Padron, Jr. - Grand Master of Florida

"Vision 2013" - R. W. John L. Palmer - Deputy Grand Master of Tennessee

The basic purpose of the conference is "the advancement of Freemasonry in the southeast" and thereby "benefit Masonry as a whole". This conference provides a forum for the exchange of ideas and a discussion of problems, common and unique to each Grand Jurisdiction. I recommend we continue participation in this or a similar conference.

The 1997 conference will be held in Jackson, Mississippi on July 31 and August 1-2.

EMERGENT COMMUNICATION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA

An Emergent Communication was held on August 31, 1996 in Eden,

North Carolina for the dedication of the new Masonic Temple for Leaksville Lodge No. 136.

An Emergent Communication was held in the Grand Lodge Office Building in Raleigh, North Carolina on November 8, 1996 for the installation of Right Worshipful Brother T. Walton Clapp, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina.

An Emergent Communication was held on April 5, 1997 in Candler, North Carolina for the placing of a cornerstone at Hominy Lodge No. 491 A.F. & A.M.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

I had the opportunity to visit each of the four Veterans Hospitals and spend a few minutes with our Masonic Brethren in those care facilities. It was both an enlightening and rewarding experience to see first hand the work being done for those who have given so much for our country. I cannot say thank you enough to the Masonic Service Representatives and the core of volunteers assisting them at the Hospitals in Oteen, Fayetteville, Durham, and Salisbury. It takes special people to work in these special situations.

OUT OF STATE VISITATION

My out of state visits were limited because of my instate commitments and I felt my first obligations were at home. However, I am happy to report that in addition to attending the Southeastern Masonic Conference in Nashville and the Grand Masters Conference in Tulsa, I was able to make the following out of state visitations:

On April 24-25 I attended the Grand Lodge of South Carolina along with my wife Marian. This was a special occasion since we have come to know and appreciate so many of these Brethren not only through Grand Lodge, but through association with them in several of the Appendant Bodies.

On June 29-July 4th Marian and I accompanied by Right Worshipful Brother Tom Gregory and Marilyn attended the Imperial Shrine of North America in New Orleans. Unfortunately Brother Tom and Marilyn had to return home early due to the death of his mother. This was a wonderful experience for Marian and me and what perfect hosts the three Temples in North Carolina were to us. We were the guests of Amran, Oasis, and Sudan Temples for a delightful banquet and we appreciate their hospitality and friendship and for making us feel so welcome.

On September 10, 1996 accompanied by Brothers Powell Shelton, Bill Harper, and Gene Lewellyn, I attended a Past Master's Night in Cowpens Lodge No. 210, Cowpens, South Carolina. Also in attendance were the Grand Master of South Carolina, Most Worshipful Brother Robert Pinkston and the Grand Master of Georgia, Most Worshipful Brother Clyde Griffin.

On November 10-12 we were privileged to attend the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Virginia held in Richmond. In addition to an enlightening Grand Lodge experience, I was given a personal tour of the Grand Lodge Office and the Masonic Home by Brother Tommy L. Jones, Administrator of the Home and formerly Administrator of our Home in Greensboro.

OTHER VISITATIONS

Instate visitations and meetings, in addition to the thirty-two District Meetings, the quarterly Board Meetings of the two Homes, the Board of General Purposes and the Long Range Planning Committee, were too numerous to list here but numbered over 125.

Among the meetings, where I was privileged to speak and/or bring fraternal greetings, were the Southeastern York Rite Conference in Charlotte, the Grand Chapter, the Order of Eastern Star in Hickory, the Grand Assembly, The Order of Rainbow for Girls in Raleigh, The Grand Master's Class, the Order of DeMolay in Greensboro, Oasis Shrine Ceremonial in Asheville, Sudan Shrine Ceremonial in New Bern, Amran Shrine Ceremonial in Sanford, the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and the General Grand Council of Cryptic Masons in Asheville, and the Grand York Rite Bodies in Raleigh.

I had the honor of attending many banquets and ladies nights, participating in several degrees, presenting numerous awards including Twenty-five Year Service Awards, Fifty-Year Veterans Awards and Sixty-Year Diamond Jubilee Awards. One of the highlights was to present a Seventy-five-year certificate to Brother Gus Peeler, age 104, in Winston Salem and on the same night witness the conferral of the Master Mason's Degree by the Highway Patrol team before an audience of over two hundred. Another thrilling experience for me was the conferral of the Master Mason's Degree by the Grand Lodge Officers in my own lodge, Stokesdale No. 428 for my nephew, Brother Kenneth Simpson and my Brother-in-law Brother J. William Harper.

I also had the unique experience of visiting in the home lodge of each of the Grand Lodge Officers and each lodge in the 36th District.

JOSEPH MONTFORT MEDALS

It was my pleasure to present Joseph Montfort Medals to three of our Brethren who have distinguished themselves through their devotion and service to our Fraternity.

On June 13, 1996 I was privileged to present a medal to W. . Brother Joseph C. Saunders, a member of Hiram Lodge No. 40 in Raleigh. Brother Saunders has served as DDGM of the 24th and DDGL in the 23rd and 24th Districts and is currently serving as DDGL in the 23rd District. He is also a member of the Board of Custodians.

On August 17, 1996 it was my pleasure to present a medal to W. Brother Ray M. Comer, a member of Stokesdale Lodge No. 428, Stokesdale, North Carolina. Brother Comer has served two terms as Master and as Lodge Secretary more than twenty years. He served three years as DDGM of the 36th District and is now an Assistant Grand Tyler.

The third medal will be presented at the 1997 Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in April 1997.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

The continued decline in our membership remains a major concern of all of us. There are other areas that concern me more than membership decline and those are the actions of some of our members and the lack of participation and involvement of others. Some of our Brethren apparently think the rules were made for others and continue to ignore them. Some seem to think the moral principles and ethics we teach apply only while inside the lodge room. Some seem to have little charity in their heart and never enough to forgive and forget. Some are willing to have their names removed from our rolls, either by demits or non-payment of dues, rather than support the mission of Freemasonry. Brethren, these are major concerns.

In spite of the above, a number of good things are happening in Freemasonry in North Carolina and there is a lot of excitement and optimism. Some of our Lodges are showing membership gains and we have initiated some outstanding programs such as "Program for Progress". Our Long Range Planning Committee is hard at work on ideas and plans for the future. Our Development Program, under the direction of Brother Jim Medlin, has made great strides. New programs are being implemented at the Masonic Home for Children and expansion plans have been approved for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. I have found relationships between the Grand Lodge and the Appendant Bodies to be excellent.

The changing times in which we live will continue to require that we evaluate our policies and our practices if we are to remain a leader in the Masonic World. Freemasonry is a challenge and Freemasonry will continue to challenge each of us.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend every lodge in North Carolina implement the "Program for Progress" developed by our Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications.

I recommend continued financial support and appropriations for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, the Masonic Home for Children at Oxford, the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, the Masonic Service Association, the Conference of Grand Masters of North America, the Southeastern Masonic Conference, and the Youth Organizations. I recommend a greater participation and visibility in the activities of these organizations especially those within our Grand Jurisdiction.

I recommend each lodge in North Carolina give serious consideration to involvement in a community project such as, a blood drive, childhood immunization program, or children's identification program.

I recommend the adoption of a mission statement by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

I recommend the continuation of the Grand Lodge Committee for Long Range Planning as it is currently constructed consisting of the Officers of the Grand Lodge, a Past Grand Master, a Past Master and the Master of a Subordinate Lodge.

I recommend the continuation of the Education Seminars with concentration on topics of current interest and those with the potential of requiring a decision by this Grand Lodge in the future.

I recommend the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Deputy Grand Lectures continue to report, at least semiannually, to the Grand Lodge Officers to which they are assigned, in addition to the Grand Master and to any officer of the Grand Lodge that the Grand Master may specify.

I recommend this Grand Lodge and all the subordinate lodges in North Carolina give full support to the decision of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home to build a new care center and to convert the existing Bass Care Center building into independent living apartments. I also recommend that every effort be made to repay the funds which the Home will "borrow from itself" for this project as soon as possible.

I recommend the continuation of the Grand Lodge Committee on Library and Archives and the Committee on Information Systems.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE

We regret the loss of Right Worshipful Brother Robert P. Dudley, former Grand Secretary and extend our love and sympathy to Doris. We not only have lost a friend and Brother but an immense amount of knowledge and experience. We are, however, fortunate to have had a Brother and Assistant to the Grand Secretary with the skills and knowledge to more than adequately fill the job as Acting Grand Secretary and since November 8, 1996 as Grand Secretary. Brother Walton Clapp has been a pleasure to work with and was with me on most of our District Meetings. To Walt and the Grand Lodge Office Staff, Mrs. Joyce Watson and Mrs. Cornelia Liacos, I express my heartfelt gratitude. Thank you for all your assistance and support.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND SPECIAL APPRECIATION

I thank God for all His blessings and especially for health, strength and endurance to complete the year and for safety during all my travels.

I thank all my Brethren, living and deceased, who have assisted and supported me throughout my Masonic Career.

I thank my parents and family members who have given me encouragement, support, and love through the years.

I thank the members of Stokesdale Lodge for the high privilege of being a member of this beloved Fraternity and for their support over the years.

I am grateful to my friend and Masonic Brother, Most Worshipful Jerry G. Tart for appointing me to the Grand Line and to the Past Grand Masters for their advice and support.

I thank Brothers Ray Comer, Gene Lewellyn, Powell Shelton, and others who have traveled with me during the year and assisted with the driving.

I thank the Grand Lodge Officers for their support and their participation in my program, Most Worshipful Brother Clifton W. Everett for his efforts to keep me informed last year, and Illustrious Brother Lloyd Wilkerson for his friendship, advice, and hospitality.

Brethren, I thank you for your friendship, your hospitality, your gifts, your honorary memberships and every expression of your love and friendship during the year.

I thank the ladies in the Greensboro Scottish Rite Office, Mrs. Joan Miller and Mrs. Delois Bass and also Brother Lee Rumley for all their assistance, typing support, and attention and care for the office during my absence.

Finally, I thank my dear wife, Marian, for her unwavering support, her patience, her loyalty and her love not only during the last year, but for all the great years we have had together. She has always been a positive influence in my life.

MY CHALLENGE

Brethren, it has been a wonderful experience and a great ride, but the journey is not ended. Freemasonry is still a challenge and still offers to each of us a challenge. My challenge to each of you is to accept Freemasonry's challenge - let's restore morality, let's come together in unity of purpose, let's develop leadership and let's educate. My challenge to you is Freemasonry's challenge: "Let there be Light." Let's do it by setting some goals, let's make commitments, let's go for our goals and not for gold. Let's act, not react. I challenge you.

GOD BLESS YOU AND FREEMASONRY.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM H. SIMPSON

REPORT OF THE GRAND LODGE DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

(Docket No. 37)

The following report of the North Carolina Masonic Development Officer was read, entered on the record and referred to the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters,

Distinguished Masonic Visitors from other Masonic Jurisdictions, and, my Brethren:

I come today with good news; good news that our charities are growing and doing well; good news that gifts presented to our Masonic charities over the past two years are up—7.4% in 1995 and 9.4% in 1996.

Twenty-one lodges receiving the "Five-Star Award" represent over 15% of all contributions that came in to our charities in 1996. Actually, 5% of our Lodges did 15% of all contributions. That's wonderful charity.

1996 was a good year for Development in our North Carolina Charities. The total annual support to the children, our elder brothers and sisters, and the Foundation, was $1,349,550.00, a 9.14% increase over 1995. More specifically, The Masonic Home for Children at Oxford received $707,100.00, an increase of 4.81% over 1995; The Masonic and Eastern Star Home received $437,400.00, an increase of 7.53% over 1995; MESH Care Center received $73,200.00 for a 63.74% increase over 1995; and The North Carolina Masonic Foundation received $131,900.00, an increase of 19.43%.

Legacy Gifts:	1995	1996
Total Legacy Gifts:	$833,210.44	$827,362.87

Regarding Charitable Remainder Unity Trusts, in 1995 two major CRUTs were established for our charities. In 1996, three were designed and presently under construction. Two are awaiting the sale of highly appreciated property and one was finalized in March of this year. These three CRUTs could add in excess of an additional $3,000,000 in remainder assets sent to our charities.

Additionally, in 1996 a training program was instituted in 38 different locations across the state. A training manual was given to each lodge in attendance with instruction in key fund raising efforts.

In summary, annual contributions have incrementally increased the Annual Fund by $198,500; Legacy Gifts have increased our endowment assets by $1,660,573; CRUTs have increased by $3,000,000; and, the North Carolina Masonic Foundation increased annual contributions by $46,691, and just recently moved the asset fund balance over $10,000,000. All this was accomplished with the Development Office total cost of operation being $175,000 over 2 1/2 years. In essence, you invested 4 cents and got back 96 cents in return!

Now, lets make these Grand Master's-Five Star Awards; these awards are presented to these Lodges:

St. John's Lodge No. 4, Kinston
 Hiram Lodge No. 40, Raleigh
 Millbrook Lodge No. 97, Raleigh
 Cary Lodge No. 198, Cary
 Long Creek Lodge No. 205, Huntersville
 Hickory Lodge No. 343, Hickory
 Snow Lodge No. 363, Boone
 University Lodge No. 408, Chapel Hill

 King Solomon Lodge No. 704, Gastonia
 Richard Caswell Lodge No. 705, Kinston

West Gate Lodge No. 738, Charlotte
James K. Polk Lodge No. 759, Pineville

Brethren, let's give all these "Five-Star" Lodges a big round of applause!
Great Masonic Work!

Brethren, I am proud of the opportunity to serve as your Director of Development. Our Development Program is on the move and, with your help, we can do great and wonderful things!

Let me close with a quote from Brother Ernest Borgnine, the great actor of stage, television, and movies:

"We must not allow ourselves to be limited by what has been done in the past, nor constrained by that which seems easiest, nor stunted by lack of imagination. Let us set our eyes upon the horizon, dream dreams, see visions, and make those visions into reality."

Thank you very much, Brethren!

SPECIAL REPORT OF THE BUILDING PROGRAM AT THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

(Docket No. 38)

To the Most Worshipful Grand lodge of North Carolina:

Good afternoon Brethren:

I have been asked to bring you a progress report regarding the new Care Center at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Permit me a brief recap for those who may not have been here last year.

More than 85 years ago, the Masons of the Grand Lodge and Eastern Star members of the Grand Chapter joined in cooperation to incorporate this first such Home in America. The Grand Chapter committed their continuing support to the Masons in the construction of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. The Home grew, changed with the environment, and generally kept pace with the needs of our members.

More than one and a half decades ago, the need for a new Care Center sprang forward. It was prompted by the fact that our existing Care Center was no longer satisfactory. It did not meet the needs of today's nursing home patients who require nursing on a 24 hour basis. It was not built to a standard that would allow the Masonic and Eastern Star Home the opportunity to participate in the third party payer and insurance programs. It was no longer efficient because of new regulations and too few rooms per floor.

The matter was discussed for many years. Confusion about Medicare and Medicaid, and a concern for the sufficiency of our own resources resulted in no action. During this time the needs of nursing home patients grew, technology changed, public interest in quality care increased, our membership grew older, and bureaucrats became involved.

Last year the members of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina loudly and clearly sent forward their approval to expand the Home's operations. The general plan was a replacement facility and implementation of a formal Assisted Living Program. At that time the support included an understanding that the Home would borrow the funds required through issuance of tax-exempt public bonds that would allow our members a win-win method of participating in the cost.

During the final stages of the planning phase, it was discovered that the Home's financial condition by itself would support such a bond. It would require backing through a credit enhancement from a separately rated financial institution. In that case the bonds could be issued but only in multiples of $100,000 rather than $1,000 and $5,000 lots. This would not allow our members to participate.

You can be proud of your Directors. They have not allowed themselves to be limited by the past, nor constrained by what seems easiest, nor stunted by lack of imagination. They have set their eyes upon the horizon, dreamed dreams, seen visions, and are making those visions into reality.

In February, at a three-day "Decade of Decisions" meeting, the Board of Directors scrapped the financing plan. We are now moving forward by using our own present and future resources. We are, in effect, borrowing from ourselves with every intent to reinvest in our endowment when the Home's operations move out of the red through new efficiencies and new revenues.

We are now compelled to move forward at an even more rapid pace. On April 9—just last week—representatives from the State's Division of Facility Services visited our Home. They approved the proposed site for our expansion but nearly condemned our existing building. We have agreed to pursue the expansion with all dispatch and make some immediate but costly corrections in the older building.

A portion of the investment in the older building is scheduled later in the remodeling phase. We will endeavor to meet the mandated requirements with as little waste as is possible.

Brethren, on May 10, from 11:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M., there will be a long-awaited Groundbreaking Ceremony at the Home in Greensboro. Important dignitaries have been invited not the least of which are the members of every lodge in North Carolina.

Worshipful Masters, your Lodge received an invitation several weeks ago. The Home will be providing lunch for the members, families, and friends attending from your Lodge. We need to know how many to expect. Please ask your Secretary to call my office or send in the RSVP card.

I have been asked if members can bring a container to gather some of the earth from the working place. Please encourage your members to bring a hand trowel and a container for that purpose. Also, you may want to bring blankets and picnic chairs although seats under a tent will be provided for our elderly members who are unable to stand. There will be entertainment and activities for children. All three youth groups will be participating as will the world's most professional choir from the Masonic Home for Children. It will be a historic day in Masonry.

By the way, May 10 will be the most beautiful day North Carolina has to offer. There will be no rain. The skies will be clear except for a few white fluffy clouds. The trees and flowers will resemble a kaleidoscope of colors. If it rains we will not see it. If it is cold, we will not feel it. We have waited too long and made too great an investment to be put off by bad weather.

Finally, my brethren, it has been said that the inner strength of a man can be measured by the size of the dragon he is willing to fight. You, long ago, chose to fight two large and timeless dragons. We chose wisely because the Word of God tells us to plead the widow's cause and visit the fatherless in their affliction. We fight these two dragons together and we must consider them together.

The number of children in need of a Home is growing and we must support our Masonic Home for Children whose residents bring nothing to the table except hopes and dreams.

The number of elderly Masonic families in North Carolina will double over the next 10 years. The number of our needy members who apply for admission has always been related to the numbers of Masons in North Carolina over the age of 65.

North Carolina Masons have chosen to fight this dragon. Come to the battle. Participate in the fight, cheer on, and applaud the warriors. By taking even a modest turn, you will have made a good effort.

God bless y'all and we'll see you at the Groundbreaking on May 10.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN A ROSE
Administrator

ATTEST:

I certify that the foregoing Proceedings are a true and correct record of the official transactions of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, at the communication held on April 15-16, 1997, and that they were prepared by me from the detailed minutes of that Communication, and were published under my supervision.

shoulders." Never in a thousand years would I have ever imagined that this would someday become true.

After being voted into my home lodge, I received a letter from the Grand Lodge office from the Grand Master, Leslie Garner. It was a form letter congratulating me on my admission. At that time I did not know Les but today I do. Today he is not only my Brother, but a dear, dear friend. I love you and Evelyn man. This is what I get out of this great fraternity, the people, the friends I have made. They are the greatest people on earth from one end of this state to the other. I cherish them one and all.

Before I start introducing some extra special people, I want to thank Brother Leamon Eubanks who had the most difficult task of teaching me the catechisms of the degrees of Masonry. He planted a seed in me that made me want to do more than just get that third degree behind me and get a dues card. He encouraged me. He showed me that there was more to this fraternity than just becoming another Master Mason. Leamon to you and your lovely wife Mae, who also has been special to Becky and me, thank you very much. I wish my parents could be alive to see this because without the lessons and love I got from them this would not have been possible.

I would like for you to meet my family members who are here today. My brother, Phillip; Wanda, Anna, Kara; my sister Raelene "Plum" Roselli and her husband A. T. "Chic" Rosselli; my father-in-law, Roland, Roland, Jr. and his wife Lisa; and Don Davis; my Masonic father and mother B. T. and Virginia Phillips; my Masonic grandfather and grandmother, Cecil and Hazel Liverman, and my Masonic great grandfather, Leslie Garner and great grandmother Evelyn Garner, who is sick and could not be here today. Evelyn, we send our love and prayers to you. Faye was our first daughter, she joined the family in 1990. Melodie was the second and now we have the third. Faye we love you just as much now as then but Number 3 is now Number 1. Madison Hope Smith, I have found out in the past seventeen months why the word Grand was put before grandchildren, because there is nothing any grander than grandchildren. As with all good things, you save the best for last—my dear wife Rebecca Dawn Lawrence Smith, whom you all know as "Becky." Without this lady, I can guarantee you that I would not be standing here now. Without her love and understanding, I couldn't have done it. I love you.

A preacher friend told me one time about his first appearance in the pulpit. He was to deliver the evening service at a small country church, much like the one at Davis, where I grew up. He worked several weeks preparing his text and on the night he was to preach only one person showed up. He was sick and depressed and didn't know what to do. So he asked the fellow "Should I go ahead and do it?" The fellow said "Preacher, I am a farmer and if I loaded up a truckload of hay, took it out to pasture, and only one cow showed up I'd feed her." The preacher smiled and took his cue, got in the pulpit and preached for an hour and a half. After finally saying "Amen" he went down to the farmer and asked what he thought about the sermon. The farmer scratched his head and said "Well I don't know about that sort of thing but I'll tell you this. If I loaded up a truckload of hay, took it out to pasture and only one cow showed up, I sure wouldn't give her the whole load."

So now I think I have given you enough of a load today. I do have one more thing I want to give someone before we close and go upstairs for refreshments.

This last song has a special meaning to me—listen to the words. Everyone of us has someone who has given or gives us support, the wind that carries us through life. I want to dedicate this to four special people who have given me that support but could not be here today: Willett Tillett, Jerry Tart, Pete Dudley, and Todd.

INSTALLATION REMARKS

GERRY T. SMITH

I'll bet that no one here can imagine what was going through my mind as I stood at that altar? I was thinking "What have I got myself in and what a I doing here?" I am reminded of the boy who was in the army in World War II and would write home to his parents about every three months but for security reasons he couldn't tell them where he was. In one letter he wrote "Sorry I can't tell you where I am but yesterday I went hunting and shot a polar bear." About three months later he wrote the same thing about the security reasons and added "I can say that last night I went dancing with a girl in a grass skirt." About three months later he wrote his parents and said "Well this time I can tell you where I am. I am in the army hospital, fourth floor, room seven in Manila. P. S. The doctor said I should have danced with the bear and shot the girl." I'm probably as out of place as he was.

I want to thank each and every one of you for coming here today. It really means a lot to me and I'll not forget it. When I look around this room I see many people; dear friends who have become special to me, who have touched me in a special way, who have helped me along life's way through good times and bad times. I wish I had the time to single you out and thank you but I can't now. Maybe I can before my journey ends and I drop my anchor for the last time. I have bruises on my arm where I have been pinching myself to see if this is really happening or just a dream.

Twenty-one years ago my dear Brother Ottis Jefferson presented me the lambskin apron of a Mason. In that presentation he said "Your ambitious feet may tread round after round the ladder that leads to fame in our mystic circle, and even the purple of our fraternity may rest upon your honored the square and level. They have earned this Grand Master the respect and fraternal love of all who know him. "He is a true Tar Heel, born and bred; He is a Mason, tried and true.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES

THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

On nomination, duly seconded, Charles B. Patterson, P.M. (700) was elected by the Board of General Purposes as a member of the Board of Publication for a term of five (5) years, expiring in 2002.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The Grand Master-elect appoints sixty-five (65) District Deputy Grand Masters to serve the 65 Masonic Districts of North Carolina for the Masonic year 1997.

(Note: For a list of District Deputy Grand Masters, see Page 21 of these Proceedings.)

WILLIAM HENRY SIMPSON GRAND MASTER

The Masons of North Carolina have greatly benefited from the strong and clear leadership of William Henry Simpson as Grand Master. He has endeared himself to the Craft from our cities to our rural communities, from the far corners of our state to its heart.

At his installation as Grand Master, Brother Simpson expressed his hope that the Craft would be "stirred" to love and good works during his stewardship. On his many visits and meetings throughout the state, he carried the message that "every man was not made to be a Mason" and that "it's not easy to be a Mason."

Simpson seems to have been destined to serve a Mason's role model. He has demonstrated great love for the Craft while he embodied its moral code and well-founded faith. He has walked upright before God and man. His keen sense of right has led his every action toward what is best for the Fraternity.

His sense of charity has extended to all. His concern for our elderly and children have been evidenced in his leadership at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and the Masonic Home for Children.

His heart beats strongly with the mission and purpose of Freemasonry. His contagious smile, earnest handshake, and reassuring humility show his feet to be firmly grounded to

2000—Charles Ray Thomas, P.M. (369)

(Note: The nomination was unanimously confirmed by the Grand Lodge.)

The Grand Lecturer held a discussion on ways of improving the notification procedure of the new incoming DDGLs. He suggested to send the new DDGLs a letter stating that subject to the incoming Grand Master's election, he had approved their appointment and encourage them to attend Grand Lodge. After the discussion, a motion was made by the Grand Lecturer, seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders, for the Grand Lodge to send a letter this year under the seal of the Deputy Grand Master to all incoming DDGLs informing them of their appointment. The motion was unanimously passed.

The Secretary read a letter from Brother Neill Smith, District Deputy Grand Lecturer of the 13th Masonic District, in reference to Fair Bluff Lodge No. 190 not having the required number of attendance for their School of Instruction, and thus needing the required Lecture Service. After a lengthy discussion, it was decided to contact Brother Smith to find out what kind of problems exist in the lodge. If Brother Smith and the DDGM both agree to a Lecture Service, further action will be taken at the next meeting of the Board.

The Secretary reported that a recommendation had been made to the Board of Custodians to consider changing the Schools of Instruction from two a year to one a year, and reducing the number of hours of attendance. Due the large amount of work to be completed during this meeting, the Chairman tabled this item until our next meeting in order to have ample time for discussion.

A letter was read from Brother Frenc F. Sajgo of Friendship Lodge No. 700 in reference to an inaccuracy found in the North Carolina Lodge Manual. Brother Sajgo states that it was Archimedes and not Pathagoras who exclaimed "eureka" when the principal of the Forty-Seventh Problem of Euclid was discovered. After a discussion of the Board members, it was unanimously decided that these are all symbolic terms that are also found in other places of our ritual. The lessons that are taught are the most important points of concern. The Secretary will inform Brother Sajgo of the decision.

The Grand Lecturer reported on the appointments of new incoming DDGLs. A lengthy discussion followed with input from all the members of the Board. Each DDGL was discussed at length. All the positions were filled with exception of the 16th, 47th and 50th districts. The Grand Lecturer will make the final three appointments early in the following week. It was moved by Brother Bunn T. Phillips, seconded by Vincent P. Bonamino to approve the appointments. The motion unanimously passed. The following brethren have been appointed to serve as DDGL for the 1997-98 year subject to approval of the incoming Grand Master.

The Secretary reported on the Certified Lecturers who were entitled to Bakersville from the recent storm and would not be able to attend the meeting. Brother Tom Gregory, Representative to the Grand Lodge Officers, was currently in a meeting with the Board of General Purposes and could not attend.

The Secretary reported on a recent conversation with the Grand Master in reference to all DDGLs notifying the lodges in their District in a more timely manner on Schools of Instruction. The lodges need to be notified at least six weeks in advance to properly prepare for the school. Some lodges meet only once a month and this would give them at least two meetings to prepare for the school. This will be better explained to all DDGLs at the DDGL conference during Grand Lodge this year. It was also suggested to invite the new incoming DDGLs to attend Grand Lodge and reimburse them for their expenses the first year. This will be discussed at the Board of General Purposes meeting.

A letter was read from Joseph T. George, Jr., Master of Cookville Lodge No. 502 in reference to notifying lodges of Schools of Instruction in a more timely manner, and of a mild friction between the DDGL and the Lodge. The Grand Lecturer read his reply to Brother George's letter and also stated that he had contacted the DDGL, Brother John Parlier concerning the confusion. After careful consideration and discussion, the matter appears to have been resolved.

A letter was read from Brother Sam Pollard, DDGL of the 18th District in reference to Morning Star Lodge No. 85 missing two Schools of Instruction and therefore needing to hold a Lecture Service. The Grand Lecturer has prepared a letter to send all lodges who are delinquent in attendance for Schools of Instruction. This edict was approved by the Delegates of the 1996 session of Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lecturer reported on DDGLs who have not returned their Annual Reports. This was covered in the DDGL packets received at Grand Lodge. It was decided to explain these items in further detail at the April session of Grand Lodge. The Grand Lecturer stated he would contact the ones not heard from and ask them to send the report to him.

The Grand Lecturer reported that Brother Billie J. Wood, DDGL of the 59th District, had resigned due to health reasons. Brother Charles W. Maxwell was recommended to replace Brother Wood. A motion was made by Brother Leslie Turner to approve Brother Maxwell's appointment, seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders. The motion was carried.

The Grand Lecturer announced that a Third Degree would be conferred by the Grand Lodge Officers at Atkinson Lodge on January 27, 1997 and at Monroe Lodge on March 8, 1997. He encouraged everyone to attend if possible.

Brother Michael Overcash reported on the Highway Patrol Third Degree Team who conferred the Master Mason's Degree at Pioneer Lodge No. 685. The Grand Master also presented a 75 year award that night. He stated they have numerous requests to confer the Master Mason's Degree throughout the state.

The corrected O.S.W. revision was presented for the second proofing. The following pages were distributed to: Michael Overcash—5-57, Robert K. Braswell—page 58-112, Bruce Boyette—pages 113-135, B. T. Phillips—pages 136-166, Leslie Turner—pages 167-197, and Joseph C. Saunders—pages 198-228. After the second proofing, they will be returned to the Secretary for any further corrections.

The Chairman held a round table discussion with input from all members of the Board. Everyone expressed their pleasure of being in attendance. He thanked the visitor for his interest and attendance. The date for the next meeting was set for March 14, 1997. The minutes were approved as they will be recorded by the Secretary and the meeting was adjourned at 4:05 P.M.

The Secretary reported that he had been contacted by Gary L. Brant, Jr., DDGM of the 34th Masonic District in reference to not having a School of Instruction for the past two years. The Grand Lecturer will contact Charles F. Bivins, DDGL of the 34th District to find out his plans for conducting a School in the near future. If nothing is accomplished by the next Board meeting, further action will be discussed.

The secretary reported that a letter will be mailed to all CLs in the near future, thanking them for their valuable service as DDGL for the past year, and asking for recommendations to take their place if they are completing their third term as DDGL. The recommendations will be mailed to the Grand Lecturer to assist him in selecting DDGL's for the 1997 term.

The proofing of the first copy of the O.S.W. revision is nearly complete. When the secretary receives all proofed copies, he will have them corrected and have another set ready for the second proofing at our January meeting.

The Chairman held a round table discussion with input from all members of the Board. Everyone expressed their pleasure of being in attendance. He thanked the visitor for his interest and attendance. Bunn T. Phillips, Grand Lecturer	Leslie Turner
J. Luigi Ammons, Secretary	H. Michael Overcash
Vincent P. Bonamino

Representative to the Board of General Purposes: Bruce Boyette

Visitor: George Jenkins

Absent: Representative to the Grand Lodge Officers: Thomas W. Gregory

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman at 2:05 P.M. and opened with prayer. The Chairman thanked all members for attending and extended a warm welcome to our visitor. The reading of the minutes was dispensed with since they were approved at the last meeting and members had been sent a copy.

The Chairman read a letter from the Committee on Finance pertaining to our projected budget for the 1997 year. The secretary reported he had a copy of all expenses from the certified lecturer examinations. The other expenses would include travel allowances for the DDGLs coming to Grand Lodge, and miscellaneous travel expenses from DDGLs while on official business, which must be submitted to the Grand Lodge before the end of the year. The Grand Lodge will have a record of the expenses which were paid out to them. It was noted that the Lecture Service was suspended at Grand Lodge this year for a significant savings to the Grand Lodge budget. It was suggested that the Grand Lecturer be allotted an expense budget of $1,000.00 for miscellaneous travel while performing the duties required by his office. The secretary will contact the Committee on Finance with our proposed budget and proposal.

It was reported that the Schools of Instruction are going well with the new changes and increased number of hours. Only a small number of lodges have expressed some dissatisfaction with the new schedule.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF CUSTODIANS
SEPTEMBER 13, 1996

A meeting of the Board of Custodians was held at 2:00 P.M. on the above date at the Masonic Temple in Raleigh, 1520 Caswell Street, with the following members present:

H. V. Massengill, Chairman	Joseph C. Saunders
Bunn T. Phillips, Grand Lecturer	Leslie L. Turner
J. Luigi Ammons, Secretary

Representative to the Board of General Purposes: Bruce Boyette

Visitors: Robert K. Braswell and George Jenkins

Absent: Vincent P. Bonamino, H. Michael Overcash, and Thomas W. Gregory

The meeting was called to order by the chairman at 2:00 P.M. and opened with prayer by Brother Bunn T. Phillips. The Chairman thanked all the members for their attendance. This meeting was re-scheduled from September 6, 1996, due to Hurricane Fran and the tremendous amount of destruction in the Raleigh area. The Grand Lodge Office Building was still without power at the time of this meeting.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with since they were approved at the last meeting, and all members had been furnished a copy of them.

The Chairman reported that Albemarle Lodge No. 703 has requested to purchase new costumes for the improved appearance of their degree work. Brother Massengill presented photographs from the magazine they intend to order from for the scrutiny of the Board. Brother Massengill moved to approved the purchase of the costumes requested, seconded by Brother B. T. Phillips. The motion unanimously passed.

The Secretary reported that all was in preparedness for the Certified Lecturer Examinations this year. All certificates and cards are ready and all applications received thus far have been processed. He reported that several brethren had requested an extension for the 1996 examinations due to various valid reasons. Brother B. T. Phillips moved to grant these extensions and to authorize the Secretary, at his discretion, to grant any additional extensions that may arise before the examinations begin. The motion was seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders and unanimously passed. The Secretary reported that a second letter had been mailed to the examination sites advising of the number which will be in attendance for their assistance in the preparation of the lunches.

The Secretary read a letter from Brothers James L. Hopper and Robert E. Pennington pertaining to their ill health and not being able to be re-examined this year. The Secretary moved to grant Certified Lecturer Emeritus to Brother Robert E. Pennington, who has been certified for 32 continuous years, Brother James L. Hopper, who has been certified for 35 continuous years, Brother James Edgar Mosteller, who has been certified for 34 continuous years, and Brother Richard Paul Benton, who has been certified for 26 continuous years. The motion was seconded by Brother H. V. Massengill and unanimously passed.

The Grand Lecturer reported that only 13 districts had reported to him on Schools of Instruction held since Grand Lodge. He presented a letter to the Board for their approval, to be mailed to all District Deputy Grand Lecturers pertaining to up-dating the records on Schools of Instruction held thus far this year and future plans for up-coming ones to be held. The members of the Board were in full agreement with the Grand Lecturer's letter.

The Chairman reported that the O.S.W. revision was ready to begin. The first task will be to check the current O.S.W. with the one which has McLamb stated that some of the brethren in his district worked on Saturdays, and others felt it was the one day of the week for yard work and other personal duties. He therefore asked the Board of Custodians to consider discouraging Saturday Schools of Instruction. A discussion followed and the Board members decided that since so many districts hold their Schools on Saturday, it would be unfeasible to recommend anything to contrary.

Brother Bunn T. Phillips read a letter from David E. Guy, DDGL of the 30th District. Brother Guy proposed to utilize an hour or so of the allotted time of a School of Instruction to approach subjects such as: proper conduct at a Masonic funeral service; lodge protocol; proper floor work and decorum while conferring degrees; and reading the red instructions in the O.S.W. These proposals would be used with the approval of both the DDGM and DDGL of the district. Brother Bunn T. Phillips moved to accept these proposals if a district so desires to use them, provided that it does not distract from the quality of the ritualistic work. The motion was seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders, and unanimously passed.

The Secretary passed around a copy of an "index" for the O.S.W., which was submitted for a quick reference tool. This index would be used as a book mark and not permanently affixed on the O.S.W. The members of the Board discussed this item, and decided that it should not be used.

The Secretary read a letter pertaining to instituting the Wayfaring man in the Third Degree. After an active discussion by the Board members, it was decided that they could not authorize something that is not in the O.S.W.

The Secretary reported on the upcoming certified lecturer examinations to be held in September. He reported that all was in preparedness and on schedule. The first letter scheduled to be mailed out to all subordinate lodges, Certified Lecturers, Certified Instructors, and Grand Lodge Officers, had been carried to the Oxford Printing Department four weeks ago, and that they would be mailed out in the next week. A letter will be sent in the next few weeks to secure the examination locations. A motion was made by Brother Bunn T. Phillips to reprint the proficiency certificates next year, and include a space for the Grand Master's signature on them. The motion was seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders, and unanimously passed.

The Secretary reported that the O.S.W. has now been set on a computer disk, and ready to check for accuracy against the present book. When the finished product is received by the Secretary, he will mail it to the Chairman to begin the editing process. After successfully completing this task, the editing process will begin on the additions to be included in the new book. Again discussed by the Board, was the need of Vocabularies for the purpose of editing the new work. Brother Bunn T. Phillips phoned the Grand Master in reference to this, who authorized the issuance of Vocabularies to the members of the Board. These will be returned to the Secretary of the Board when their term of office expires on the Board. The books issued were:

- No. 461—Bunn T. Phillips
- No. 462—H. V. Massengill
- No. 463—H. Michael Overcash
- No. 464—Joseph C. Saunders
- No. 465—Vincent P. Bonamino
- No. 466—J. Luigi Ammons
- No. 467—Leslie L. Turner

A round table discussion was held with input from all members and visitors. All expressed their pleasure on being in attendance at the meeting. The date for the next meeting was set for September 6, 1996. The minutes were read and approved and the meeting was adjourned at 4:30 P.M.

He stated that he no longer had the time or inclination to continue in the capacity of DDGL. He further stated that his performance had been sub-standard for the past few years, and felt the brethren in his district deserved better representation. The Secretary stated that Brother Meacombs was the only certified lecturer in the 17th District at the present time. Brother Bruce Boyette suggested that Brother Hilton Best would be happy to assume the duties of DDGL in the district, but that his certification had expired and he had not had time to renew it. After a discussion of the Board members and a phone call to Brother Best, Brother Bunn T. Phillips moved that a special examination for Brother Best be held on June 21, 1996, at the Grand Lodge Office, and he would fill the position of DDGL after completing his proficiency examination. The motion was seconded by Brother Joseph C. Saunders and unanimously passed. The Secretary will send a letter to Brother Horace Meacombs, Jr. thanking him for his valuable years of service as DDGL of the 17th District.

He stated that the Board of Custodians and its members would be a memory of sustaining relationships in the years to come, and expressed his regret of missing our meetings and the wonderful fellowship. The Secretary will send a letter to Brother Lewis accepting his resignation and wishing him the very best of luck in the Grand Lodge line.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

considered this restoration, and makes the following recommendation:

(a). Trial Docket No. 440: In the matter of J.N.H., a former member of Asheboro Lodge No. 699, A. F. & A. M., located in Asheboro, North Carolina. This Brother was expelled by the Judge Advocate on November 12, 1983. Over 13 years has expired since the brother was dismembered.

We have carefully reviewed this Petitioner's petition for restoration. Due to the gravity of the felony on which the Petitioner was convicted, and which resulted in his dismemberment, the Committee feels that the Petitioner should not be restored to the privileges of masonry. The following report of the Committee on Appeals was read by W. Brother Earle R. Purser, Chairman, and upon motion duly seconded, was adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

1. We have reviewed the record on all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge in 1996 and now pending before the Committee wherein the accused has been expelled under the provisions of Regulation 99-22 of THE CODE of 1948, as amended, and in none of which the accused appealed from the decision of the Judge Advocate.
